Evolution As Fact; Science Not Doubtful of It

CALIFORNIA is the latest state to face the demand that the teaching of evolution be forbidden in the schools. A committee of college presidents has just reported to the state board of education approving the existing text books and pointing out that "evolution is presented as a theory and not an established fact."

This is tactful, and, of course, quite correct. But do not be misled by the word "theory." Popular speech may contrast "theory" and "fact" as meaning "sure" and "doubtful," but in science a theory may be as certain as a fact. Most of the major truths of science are theories. Gravitation is. So is the molecular, atomic and electronic constitution of matter and the wave transmission of light and sound. So are all the "laws of nature." So are the hypotheses on which you construct your radio. Much is unknown about all of these, but nobody doubts that they represent reality. The reality of evolution is as little doubtful.

A fossil is a fact. Evolution is the meaning spelled by millions of such facts. It is as clear, to those acquainted with the facts, as is this sentence to those familiar with letters and words. Yet, even the first step beyond the fossil, to the assumption that it is the imprint of a living creature, is already in the realm of theory. There have been blasphemers who pretend to honor God by the theory that He miraculously placed the fossils to deceive mankind. We prefer faith in the finger that traced the records in the living rock.

These records show life progressing from simple to more complex forms, in manifestly related family groups and lines of descent. This is evolution, on which scientists are agreed. It is true that there are things about evolution on which they are not agreed. Some explanations are evidently incomplete.

Isolated sentences by scientific writers to this effect have been torn from their connection to mislead as "proof texts" to show that these scientists deny evolution. The writers themselves repudiate any such interpretation. They are no more doubtful of evolution than they are of the equally "theoretical" hypothesis that the earth moves around the sun.

Eclipse Makes Us Big and Little.
THIS month's eclipse will have been seen by more people than ever witnessed a like spectacle before. Since the world began to be densely inhabited, no eclipse ever traversed so populous a region. And none of these people will be afraid of superstitions. So much for modern enlightenment. But if the eclipse does not frighten us, it should not fail to impress us. There could be no more imposing reminder of the littleness and the greatness of man. It will make visible huge eruptions on the edge of the sun, in whose blasts our earth would be but a teasing pebble, and beyond that vast auroras, sweeping interplanetary space.

Observers will feel their place as crawling animalcules on a speck of star dust. But also they may realize that in all the stupendous cosmic sweep, the only greater thing is the mind that apprehends it. From the very throne of the universe, man looks down on his own significance. He knows himself small because he is great. Son of the microbe; brother of the archangel—this is man, and Thou art mindful of him!

Chestnut Trees and Mammals
NEW things throw light on old. The chestnut tree, once a common American species, is rapidly becoming extinct. Ages earlier, the mastodons, the camel and the horse also became extinct in America, though two of them survived in Eurasia. The explanation, in the case of the chestnut, is known to be an endemic disease. Did some Pleistocene plague sweep America of its most notable mammals, long before the advent of man?

Getting Ready For More War
EVIDENTLY the chief end of man is still the breeding of "cannon fodder." France proposes to increase the allowance to parents of large families. Why? This solicitude? France has people enough, and its population is not decreasing. More inhabitants will not make France richer or happier. But Germany is breeding potential soldiers faster than France, and France is afraid. Kanonen-tutter!

Learning About Our Government
SENATOR JOHNSON introduces a resolution requesting Secretary Hughes to send the senate a copy of the Paris reparations agreement.

If the measure advocated by Secretary Hughes were in force, the resolution would be superfluous. The senator could ask the secretary directly, on the floor of the senate, all about it. The people would have the benefit of the senator's criticisms—and of the secretary's explanations—both under the responsibility for careful statement which the presence of each would impose on the other.

Fish Boat Catches Fire Off Seal Beach

STEAMERS RUSH TO AID IN FIGHTING FIRE, REPORT

Hundreds Along Coast See Dense Smoke As Ship Runs For Shore

SAY CREW MEMBERS ARE OVERCOME

Not Determined Whether Lives Are Lost In Fight Against Flames

AFTER waging an ineffectual battle with the flames for the greater part of the forenoon the crew of a fishing vessel which caught fire off the coast early today succeeded at noon in running the boat ashore at Seal Beach, according to meager reports.

A number of steamers from San Pedro were rushed to the aid of the vessel, which was at first reported to be an oil tanker, it was said.

The great volumes of dense smoke and the air gave color to the theory that the craft was an oil carrier. This report was later denied and the craft described as a fishing vessel.

Several of the crew were reported to have been overcome by the smoke. They were carried ashore and given respiratory treatment as soon as the vessel had been beached. It is not known whether any lost their lives.

Crowds of interested spectators, powerless to help, watched the blazing vessel as she was slowly edged in through the breakers, reports indicated.

MRS. HART WILLING TO PATCH UP ROW

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 22.—Possibility of a reconciliation between William S. Hart and his estranged wife Winifred Westover Hart, was being discussed in Hollywood today.

The two screen performers clashed in court here last week when Mrs. Hart won a suit permitting her to return to films, prohibiting under the terms of their separation agreement.

"I'm ready for a reconciliation whenever my husband is," Mrs. Hart said, adding that their two-year-old son needed a father's care.

Hart is enroute east on a two-months' business trip, having left here yesterday after instructing his attorneys to appeal from the decision in his wife's suit.

Delay Report On Dam Measure

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The house irrigation committee today defeated a motion by Representative Raker, California Democrat, to report on the Swift-Johnson Boulder dam bill and voted to continue hearings. This, virtually eliminates all prospects of action on the measure at this session. A motion by Chairman Smith to summon Assistant Secretary of the Interior Finney and other officials before the committee for questioning was adopted after rejection on Raker's motion.

Jail Breaker Is In Prison Again

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 22.—Gerald Chapman, notorious desperado and jail breaker, was returned to federal prison here today. Chapman arrived at the union station on a regular passenger train in custody of two guards. Two deputy wardens in an automobile met the party and they were whisked away to the penitentiary.

Young Wrigley To Succeed Dad

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Philip K. Wrigley, just rounding 30, shortly will take the helm of the $35,000,000 chewing gum business of his father, William Wrigley, Jr., it was revealed today. Philip's election to the presidency is scheduled for next month at the annual stockholders meeting.

KEITH LORD

His banjo tinkled merry tunes for jazz parties, and now it has put him in jail. Keith Lord, who played in an orchestra at Venice, is charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He is one of the "sheiks" San Francisco police arrested in connection with the case of Dorothy Ellingson, 16, girl who murdered her mother, and then went on to a "wild" party.

GET READY TO WELCOME JAP FLEET AT S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—Officers of the Twelfth Naval District and personnel of the battleships West Virginia, Colorado and Maryland under Admiral Henry A. Wiley were making ready today to welcome the Japanese training fleet which will drop anchor in the bay tomorrow.

Elaborate plans have been made by both the navy and city authorities to entertain officers and men of the visiting fleet, the first affair to be an official reception in the rotunda of the city hall tomorrow morning for officers of both fleets. Mayor James Rolph Jr. will make an address.

MYSTERIOUS WOMAN CALLED IN PROBE

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—A mysterious woman, known as Miss Estelle Gehling, graduate nurse, today entered the McClintock death struggle.

Letters written to Miss Gehling by William D. Shepherd, guardian of William McClintock, "the millionaire orphan" will be introduced as evidence when the inquest is held next month, Chief Justice Harry Olson, investigator of the investigation, announced. The woman may be called to testify, Olson indicated.

Young McClintock, heir to his parents' $2,000,000 estate, died at the Shepherd home just before he was to be married to Miss Isabelle Pope, a society girl. Friends of both families were surprised when they found the boy's will left the bulk of his estate to Shepherd with only an annual payment of $8,999 to Miss Pope.

GOFF TO ACCEPT DRY CHIEF'S JOB

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—Confirmation of appointment of San Francisco Police Captain Charles Goff as general prohibition agent for the eighteenth prohibition district, comprising northern California and Nevada, is expected from Washington today or tomorrow, according to E. C. Yellowlegs, chief federal field agent.

Goff last yesterday accepted appointment to head the district after turning down the post earlier in the day.

CAR UPSETS; 2 BROTHERS NEAR DEATH

Four Hollywood Men Are Injured In Accident at North Edge of Anaheim

C. H. HAWKINS and S. J. Hawkins, brothers, are at the point of death at the Anaheim Community hospital and John Bower and Dave Smith were seriously injured, as the result of an automobile accident, on the curve of the intersection of Spadra road and Lemon street, at the north edge of Anaheim, early today.

Reports that John Bower was John Bowers, famous movie star, and that Dave Smith was a film director, were denied by the injured men shortly after noon today, with the explanations that they were movie folk, working in laboratories in Hollywood.

S. J. Hawkins is suffering from a compound fracture of the skull and his brother is suffering from severe cuts and bruises about the face. It is feared that the sight in one eye was destroyed. Bower and Smith received minor cuts and bruises and were not confined to bed.

The four men were on their way from Hollywood to San Diego at the time of the accident and it is thought they were making too much speed to negotiate the curve at the intersection. The car was overturned and badly damaged.

SEEK WRITERS OF 'K. K. K.' NOTES

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22.—Police were today guarding two homes in opposite parts of the city as they searched for writers of threatening notes signed "K. K. K.", one received through the mails and the other shoved under a door.

Mrs. Maud Tribe, 26-year-old wife of a Union Pacific time inspector, living in Hollywood opened an envelope to find a note warning her to "be careful with your child. This is not a healthy neighborhood for your child. Feather may improve your looks," the threat read.

Mrs. Tribe said she and neighbors had clashes recently, but authorities questioned everyone living in the block without avail. S. K. Lehman, an electrical dealer and past grand master of a local Masonic lodge, returned to his home late last night to find another "K. K. K." note awaiting him.

"Beware! Ye are being watched by the Ku Klux Klan. 10 o'clock tonight," he read. He knew of no enemies who might have written the threat.

Missouri Bank Closes Doors

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., Jan. 22.—The First National bank of Excelsior Springs closed its doors here today and the affairs of the institution were placed in the hands of the comptroller of the currency, following the suicide of E. B. Brashear, cashier, yesterday.

WILL LADMIT GUILT.
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22.—Charles Westcott, "millionaire cowboy," charged with attacking two local girls, will plead guilty to a statutory offense and serve two years at hard labor on the county road gang, his attorney announced today. The case is set for January 25.

U.S.-RUSSO TREATY IS SEEN SOON

Pres. Coolidge Is Expected to Name Commission For Negotiations

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 22.—American recognition of Russia has moved a step nearer with the signing of the Japanese-Russian treaty in Peking, which isolated the United States as the only major country now refusing to recognize the soviet union.

Japan, by obtaining oil and coal "concessions" in Saghalien, under the treaty provided herself with necessary supplies in event of war in the Pacific.

Unless the Russians start a fresh campaign of denunciation against the United States government, President Coolidge is expected to appoint a commission to negotiate with Moscow next summer or autumn. Similar overtures were made semi-secretly by this government through Berlin in the summer of 1922 but were repulsed by Moscow on the ground that Russia would not be "investigated" unless it could probe American conditions at the same time.

The new Japanese-Russian accord makes it expedient for the United States, with its interests in China and the Far East to re-on an equal footing with Japan regarding Russia. But events in Moscow this week have partly counteracted that tendency.

CLAIMS TEACHERS' FUND INSOLVENT

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 22.—In a special message sent to the legislature by Governor Friend W. Richardson today, the governor declared the public school teachers' retirement system is insolvent to the extent of thirty million dollars.

"The statements in the message are so contradictory to the statement issued several days ago by the California Teachers' association and the State Association of County and City School Superintendents, which it was declared the retirement system was in good and solvent condition."

The governor states in his message that an actuary report of the fund in 1919 showed that the fund was then insolvent to the amount of twenty-five million dollars.

Men Injured On Yacht Will Live

WILMINGTON, Cal., Jan. 22.—Chief Engineer Oscar Schonstet and Ben Eklow, seamen, members of the crew of the schooner yacht, Nancy Lee, who were seriously burned when the ammonia tank of the boat exploded late yesterday, will recover, reports today indicated. Damage was estimated at $50,000.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 22.—Forty-seven more persons froze to death in the Orda district, which is under 21 feet of snow.

YOUNG MATRICIDE WILL NOT KNOW HER FATE FOR WEEK

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—Dorothy Ellingson, 16, who shot and killed her mother, will not know her fate for at least another week.

The girl's case was killed in juvenile court today and on request of Defense Attorney Alexander Mooslin and the girl's father was continued by Judge Murasky until next Thursday.

433 Students at Vassar Like Cigaret

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Jan. 22.—There are at least 433 students at Vassar who would walk a mile for a cigarette. This number answered "yes" to the question, "Do you smoke cigarettes?" in a questionnaire circulated at the college.

Five hundred and twenty-four others said they had no use for Lady Nicotine. Only 21 of the fag-puffing flappers admitted they used the weed against their parents' wishes.

Belief that the college should set aside a room for smoking was expressed by 133 voters.

TRAIN JUMPS TRACK; EIGHT ARE INJURED

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., Jan. 22.—Nine people were injured, one of them fatally, when eight coaches of a Denver and Rio Grande Western westbound train were derailed 37 miles west of here today.

Two baggage coaches plunged over a 40-ft embankment while six others, including the Pullman coaches of the train, remained standing after they had left the track.

A rail broken by the engine was given as the cause.

CONVICT BEVERLY HILLS HOTEL MAN

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Jan. 22.—Stanley Anderson, proprietor of the fashionable Beverly Hills hotel here, today was awaiting sentence following his conviction on a charge of having $65,000 worth of rare liquors in the cellars of his inn. The hotel, in which many of Hollywood's film colony reside, was raided December 15 and Anderson was convicted in justice court yesterday. He claims the liquor was "pre-war stuff" and announced he would carry the case to a higher court.

Kansas Opposes Child Labor Bill

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 22.—Kansas was on record today as against the proposed child labor amendment to the federal constitution. The lower house of the legislature yesterday voted 101 to 21 against extending more power to congress. A resolution to submit the child labor amendment to a vote of the people was indefinitely postponed.

HONOR LENIN'S MEMORY

sweeping reductions in Texas' expenses and proposed a cut in Texas taxes in automobile fees, which she would reduce by more than half. At the same time the governor would raise the gasoline tax. As for prohibition measures, Mrs. Ferguson indicated that "bone-dry" efforts of her predecessor, ex-Governor Neff, would not be maintained.

"Public officials are going to enforce the law only in proportion to popular demand for such enforcement," she informed the legislature.

REQUEST FOR HIGHWAY IN STATE PLAN

Governor's Committee of Nine Spurns Orange to San Bernardino Turnpike

FOUR METHODS OF FINANCING GIVEN

Only 196 Miles Accepted For California System In Recommendation

FIGURATIVELY speaking, Governor Friend W. Richardson's special highway committee of nine slapped the faces of the board of supervisors and chambers of commerce of Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties by turning down their joint request that the highway between Orange and San Bernardino be accepted as a part of the state highway commission, according to persons here who have carefully followed the highway program.

The committee today submitted its report to the governor "without recommendation." That the committee also turned down requests of other communities for addition of highways to the state system is evidenced by the fact that it recommends acceptance of only a limited number of sections, embracing a total of 196 miles.

Organizations and the supervisors of Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties joined in the request that the highway between Santa Ana and San Bernardino be taken over by the state. Representatives were present when the committee of nine met here some months ago.

Four Methods of Financing
Four methods of financing the state highway program are set forth in the report, but it is stated the committee was unable to agree in the allocation of funds in a manner satisfactory to all members.

The four finance methods are: 1—By general bond issue. The sum of $200,000,000 will probably be required to be expended over a term of at least 15 years, so that if this method is adopted the committee recommends successive bond issues for portions of this amount.

2—Ad valorem tax may be levied on the general property of the state at rates necessary to produce a minimum of $10,000,000.

3—Direct appropriation by the legislature might be made at the rate of not less than $20,000,000 annually.

4—Increased taxes on motor vehicles through either: (a) increased gasoline tax; (b) increased plate tax; (c) graduated weight tax to produce additional revenue of $10,000,000 in 1926.

Of the four methods, the report recommends the increased tax on motor vehicles in combination with a bond issue of $25,000,000 to be used in construction of bridges on the primary road system and in cooperation with railroad companies to eliminate grade crossings.

Recommendations State Highways
To close the gaps in the various routes of the highway system the committee recommended the following roads be taken into the system by being declared state highways:

San Rafael to Point San Quentin, three miles; Crescent City to Oregon line, coast route, 19 miles; Alturas to Oregon line, 41 miles; Pine Creek, 44 miles; from Colville to Nevada state line in Mono county, 10 miles; from Bakersfield to Mojave, 65 miles; from Needles to Topock, 18 miles; from Shavers Wells to Coachella, 25 miles; from Blythe to the Colorado river, five miles; from Oxnard to main coast highway, two miles; from San Diego to Tia Juana seven miles.

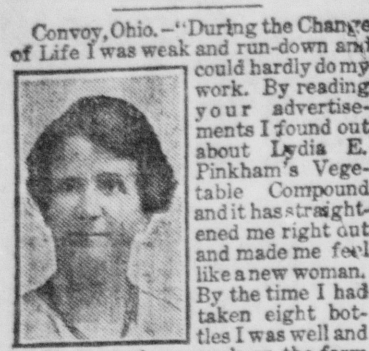

The report recommends that no other additions be made to the primary road system and that any other roads which the legislature may see fit to include in the highway system be included in the secondary system until the completion of the primary system.

The committee has been requested to recommend for inclusion in the state highways system 3000 miles of additional road, the estimated future expenditure on which would approximate $117,000,000.

This is divided, 2050 miles in the 45 northern counties, at an estimated cost of construction and reconstruction in a 15 or 20 year period of about $86,000,000; and 951 miles in 13 southern counties at an estimated cost for the same period of $31,000,000.

You Safely Through

Convey, Ohio.—"During the Change of Life I was weak and run-down and could hardly do my work. By reading your advertisement I found out about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has straightened me right out and made me feel like a new woman. By the time I had taken eight bottles I was well and could do my housework on the farm without trouble. I recommended it to my daughter-in-law after her second baby was born and it did her a wonderful lot of good. I told her to try it and if it didn't help her I would pay for it, and before she had taken one bottle she said to me, 'You won't have to pay for it! It is helping me wonderfully!' And she took three bottles of it. You can use my testimonial if you wish."—Mrs. ELSIE ACKERMAN, Convey, Ohio.

CHECKWRITERS ARE URGED TO USE MORE CARE

A nation-wide campaign to induce greater care on the part of writers of checks to frustrate forgers, has been undertaken by the American Bankers association, according to advices received by the First National Bank of Santa Ana.

The advices state that about 95 per cent of the business of the United States is now transacted by the use of checks or other credit instruments. Of the total financial loss last year through the operation of criminals, a large portion is laid to worthless and bogus checks.

The banking institutions in the country are more interested in preventing the loss of large sums of money than in detecting and apprehending the criminals. W. B. Williams, cashier of the First National declared, and in line with this policy they have taken in hand the education of the public for the security of its funds.

Use of Pencil Hit
"The pencil written slip is inviting disaster and therefore barred by most banks," Mr. Williams declared.

There are "don'ts" against the leaving of blank spaces, the signing of blank checks, and the cashing of checks without verifying the endorsements they bear.

Mr. Williams added that much trouble is said to be caused by checks made out to "bearer" or "cash" instead of to persons designated by name. Checks should be made out to "cash" only when personally presented at the bank.

"For Deposit Only"
Another piece of advice given out by the American Bankers association which has the endorsement of local bankers is that checks intended for deposit should bear not only the endorsement but also the words, "for deposit only."

Here is some more advice regarding the handling of checks: "Safeguard your checks as you would your money. Keep your check books securely locked up and be careful how and where you sign or exhibit your signature. Above all, beware of the magic word 'certified'. Ordinary certification stamps can be duplicated as easily as any other rubber stamp. Watch and examine well strange checks will apparently bear the maker's O. K. or any other form of implied approval or registration. These are more easily forged than the full signature.

"Guard your cancelled vouchers as you would a valid check, leaving none where it may be easily taken.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLES IN LATIN

STUDENTS ARE DESIGNING THEIR OWN, TOO

INTRIGUE HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

Solving cross word puzzles in Latin students at the Santa Ana Polytechnic high school are capitalizing the use of the popular brain teasers to supplement their study of the "dead language."

"Let's see, what is a synonym for 'homo'?" puzzles the student. The word "man" fits in the three letter space but since it is in Latin it must be "vir."

The students themselves are making the checker designs. Five members of the cases and Virgil classes of Miss Josephine Arnold, Latin teacher, have interviewed Latin words in puzzle form. These students are Miss Margaret Glenn, Miss Frances Barr, Miss Mary Roberts, Miss Cecilia Mudge, and Terry Stevenson.

Even the teacher, Miss Arnold, devised one of the word testers because she said she "did not like to have the students handing them in without at least attempting one." The black spaces of Miss Arnold's brought out the letters L C standing for Latin Club.

Originally, the puzzles were placed on the front blackboard of the classroom. However it was discovered that the students were struggling with the crosswords instead of with their lessons. Now the puzzles are on the back board.

SONG LEADERS TO GET "Y" TRAINING

Training for amateur song leaders is to be the next offering at the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. it was announced today by "Y" officials.

James A. McDill, director of boys' work, is a well known and popular leader of community singing, and at the request of workers who feel the need of such training for many who are called upon to direct songs, he has been assigned to handle the course of training for leaders and prospective leaders.

The course will start next Thursday evening, January 29, at the Y. M. C. A., and will run for five Thursday evenings. It is open to men and women, and will undoubtedly prove a fine opportunity to many who can take the training. Enrollment may be made at any time up to and including Thursday, at the Y. M. C. A. The course is not limited to members of the Association.

Train S. S. Workers
Further work on Community training for Sunday school workers is to be offered at the Y. M. C. A., beginning next Monday evening.

The special committee on religious education, consisting of Rev. Moffett, Rev. H. P. Burgess, Rev. W. H. McPeak, Harry W. Lewis, John A. Henderson, R. R. Lutes and R. C. Smedley, has arranged for a standard teacher training course of ten weeks to be given for the benefit of those who wish to take this special training.

Four Standard Courses
Four standard courses will be offered, including one on how to teach the Old Testament, one on how to teach the New Testament, one on the psychology of the teacher, and one on the psychology of the pupil. The sessions will start at 7 o'clock each evening, the first period running to 7:50 o'clock. There will then be a period of 20 minutes for assembly, at which time the uniform Sunday school lesson for the next Sunday will be previewed, for the benefit of those who teach adult classes. Following this there will be a second class period, continuing till 9 o'clock.

Second Marital

Voyage Failure, Complaint Says

Once married and divorced, a second marriage proved no more successful in the case of Byron and Katherine Myers, according to Mrs. Myers' suit for divorce, on file today in the superior court.

In charging her husband with cruelty, Mrs. Myers declared that after she had once divorced him, he won her back by promises of better conduct. These promises were never kept, however, and she came to the conclusion, she said, that the only reason he married her the second time was because his mother had threatened him with arrest if he didn't.

The couple have a daughter, aged 13.

The first marriage took place in Los Angeles in 1910, and they separated in 1918. They were remarried March 15, 1924, but separated again June 25, 1924. During their second marriage, Myers stayed out nearly every night, his wife declared.

The Well-Dressed Man

By BEAUNASH

Correct Clothes To Meet The Obligation Of Every Occasion

WATCH YOUR APPEARANCE

When it comes to replenishing the wardrobe, a man, unlike a woman, falls into the dog-trot of habit and follows the same path at the same pace year in, year out. Buying by the season, instead of by one's needs, is responsible for more carelessness and seediness in dress than any other factor. Don't put off until tomorrow what you should put on today. Don't, by concealing a well-worn suit under a new overcoat, fancy that you can get by until "the flowers that bloom in the spring, trail" for to continue to Mikadosque quotation, they "have nothing to do with the case, tra-la."

The proper time to replenish your wardrobe is not the first day of spring, nor the week before Easter, nor any other fixed date or period. The proper time to replenish your wardrobe is when your appearance requires it. Thousands of men are walking around today under strained and shabby hats, waiting for the new spring styles to come out, when, in point of fact, the shapes of next spring will differ so little from those of this winter, that you couldn't tell them apart with a pair of binoculars. Thousands of men let their suits and gloves and shoes and shirts and handkerchiefs and hosiery go to seed in January and February in the belief that such neglect escapes notice under cover of winter. It doesn't, but even if it did that would be no reason for not keeping up a smart appearance. The Well-Dressed Man is not well-dressed occasionally, but invariably. Whether he attracts or avoids observation has nothing to do with it. Correct dress, like manners, should be an integral and habitual part of one's make-up. It is not something to be assumed, now and then, to impress others.

The 3-button lounge or business suit, portrayed in the accompanying sketch, shows the style tendency toward the lower placing of pockets and the wider spacing of buttons. It is a young-mannish model having the broad collar; the blunt-cornered, peaked or semi-peaked lapels and the rounded-front English effect, which is still fashionable. The back is ventless.

Trousers are not cut as wide as formerly, because this style, especially when worn with a belt that allowed the trousers to sag and wrinkle over the instep, was graceless and unbecoming. Correctly cut trousers hang smoothly and evenly, and to do this they should be upheld with suspenders.

Eugene McMillan, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McMillan, of 702 South Birch street, was able to return to school today, sufficiently recovered from injuries he sustained when struck by a truck driven by M. C. Miranda, 340 South Parton street, last Monday at noon. According to police report of the accident, young McMillan dashed in front of the truck while chasing a rubber ball, while playing at the Spurgeon school at Fairview and Main streets. He was knocked to the pavement and suffered a broken arm and minor cuts and bruises about the face and head.

GAS COMPANY EMPLOYEES OF ORANGE COUNTY GATHER FOR ENJOYABLE BANQUET IN S. A.

Emphasized by an increased attendance, the type of entertainment and the character of decorations, the annual meeting last night of the Orange County Efficiency club, composed of employees of the Southern Counties Gas company, held in the club room provided by the company in its main office building here, today stood out as the most successful annual session in the eight years of the organization's life.

The accomplishments of the club in effecting closer personal relationship of employer and employee was evidenced in numerous quips shot by employees at the "higher-ups" and the "higher-ups" at the employees.

The co-operation of employees, and their interest in the success of the employing company, that have been salient factors in changing the public mind of this community from one of antagonism to one of appreciation of the company and its service was fully demonstrated in the wonderful little party staged last night.

The entire affair was planned and executed by employees, even to the preparation and service of the sumptuous turkey dinner, with all the "fixins". B. L. Hinkle had charge of the culinary department.

The expense of the dinner was borne by the Independent Fuel Supply company, which supplies the Southern Counties Gas company with a large percentage of the natural gas it furnishes throughout the southland, and more particularly in Orange county. This also featured the close harmony and co-operation existing between the two companies and the employees of the supply company were guests at the dinner and provided the entertainment program.

Coolidge Sends Regrets

Concluding the dinner, Jack Hayden, local district manager for the Southern Counties Gas company and acting president of the club, conducted a brief business session of the club, reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, Miss Ruth Walker, being the principal item of business, supplemented by an alleged letter from Calvin Coolidge, in which the writer expressed his deep regret that one H. G. Miller, former president of the club, had so conducted himself that members of the club had been compelled to put him out of their life by "hanging him on a pole at the meter shop of the company in Santa Ana." Miller was the leader of the "vinegar party" in the recent annual election of the company and his department and his political tactics were said to have been reprehensible, hence the "hanging party." Pictures of the execution were passed.

W. S. Todd, head of the supply company, as introduced as toastmaster, a position he has filled at every annual meeting of the club, as he founded the club when he was manager here for the company.

The spicy program was initiated when Mrs. Lela Baird traipsed into the dining room like a professional and sang to the tune of "Howdy Do" a number of original stanzas directed at persons present. She approached each "victim" in cabaret singer style and the "hits" went over big and prepared the party for the entertainment features that followed.

Compliment Company

Witty because of their brevity, remarks were made by L. A. West, local attorney for the company, who commented on the apparent increase in the number of employees during the past year; Horace Fine, of The Register, who complimented the company on the service it is rendering; Leroy Edwards, of Los Angeles, general attorney for the company, who spoke on the value of the club in the development of friendships and who declared that most all one gets out of life is the friendships formed; Clyde Potter, of Los Angeles, publicity expert, who felicitated the club on its fine spirit of friendship and co-operation; Simon Fluor, Santa Ana contractor, who paid a high tribute to the managerial ability of Todd and told a story of the alleged practices of the toastmaster when he was a contractor in Kentucky; George Miller, who emphasized the value of the club in cementing the ties of friendly relationship between employer and employee, and Hayden who expressed the appreciation of himself and club members for the kindly interest of the supply company in providing the dinner and emphasized the harmony existing between the two companies.

Fine Musical Program

Directed by T. M. Morgan, who wielded the baton in a "masterly and professional way," the orchestra of the Independent Fuel and

I WAS FAT

NOW I ONLY WEIGH 130 POUNDS

Took Off 50 Pounds in 8 Weeks—No Diets, Exercises, Creams, Dangerous Drugs or Worthless Reducing Girdles.

Read About "SAN-GRINA" Latest French Way to Take Off FAT—It's Safe and Lasting.

"Dear Fat Folks: Let me tell you the truth about fat. Do not be fooled by believing you can check a fatty condition in your system by going through weakening diets, strenuous exercises, rubs, or your body with creams or lotions, or by using any of the old drugs for reducing. If these were effective, THREE WOULD BE FAT MAN OR WOMAN IN THE COUNTRY today, as diets, exercises, creams and old remedies have been tried for years. Do not think for a minute that you can take off fat by wearing so-called reducing girdles—it cannot be done. I personally know the horror of being fat—I went through it. Not only did I feel ashamed of my figure, but worse still, I never was well or happy like the rest of the girls—I always had pains in my back or limbs, my feet ached, my head was dizzy—ALL THAT BECAUSE I WAS OVER-TAKING MY FRAME WITH 50 POUNDS OF EXCESS FAT WHICH NATURE DID NOT INTEND FOR ME TO CARRY. I had spent a small fortune trying everything known to reduce, but never succeeded until I found out about "SAN-GRINA," the discovery of a French scientist, who has devoted his life to the study of "obesity" and has been able to compound in a small, tasteless tablet the ingredients necessary to gradually and safely eliminate fat from the body. If you want to reduce and at the same time improve your health, go today to your drug store, get a package of "SAN-GRINA" (make sure it is "SAN-GRINA"), take two small tablets before each meal and watch your weight go down. "SAN-GRINA" IS GUARANTEED ABSOLUTELY HARMLESS. Not only does it do away with fat, but it acts as a tonic on the entire system. Do not hesitate, as "SAN-GRINA" is the only thing which ever reduced me—and which I can truthfully recommend.—Madame Elaine, New York City. PUPILS OF JULIA C. LATHROP SCHOOL TO PRESENT OPERETTA IN AUDITORIUM FRIDAY NIGHT

The glee clubs of the Julia C. Lathrop junior high school will tomorrow night present the operetta "Sylvia" in the auditorium of the high school. The performance will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

One hundred boys and girls will participate in the offering which is one of the most ambitious in to be attempted by local juvenile talent. The production effectively combines the elements of humor, drama and adventure. There are catchy melodies, sprightly dances and crisp dialogue interwoven through a real plot.

The action centers around a country maiden and a court beauty who are both dissatisfied with their lot and with their admirers. The simple rural miss sighs for the glamor and the romance of a royal palace while the court beauty yearns for the quiet life of a rustic. By a strange set of circumstances they are enabled to change place and are to take over each other's suits.

Students in an announcement today stated: "We wish to make known our appreciation and thanks to the parents and Miss Foster, who have shown such a fine spirit of co-operation in the making of costumes. We also owe a unanimous vote of thanks to the teachers who were so generous in excusing from classes the students who were to practice for the operetta. The art department has shown a fine display of talent in the making of the posters for 'Sylvia'. Many of the teachers from Julia C. Lathrop will be represented on the night of the play for there are many tasks attached to the presentation of the operetta.

"The students of Lathrop school are working diligently on the sale of tickets as they wish a full house Friday, January 23, 1925, for 'Sylvia', the proceeds of which are to go for the buying of pictures for our new school.

"The orchestra of Lathrop will play a prelude which consists of many beautiful pieces, and also accompany for the opera. Mary Elizabeth White is pianist for our operetta and will give a concert number between acts. All who love beautiful costumes and fairy tales don't miss the operetta.

FINE HOME READY FOR ORANGE SHOW

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 22.—

Dedication of the magnificent new home of the National Orange show will be held on the evening of February 19 at the opening of the Fifteenth National Orange show. Governor Friend William Richardson will probably be one of the speakers at the opening ceremonies.

The building has been entirely completed and has been accepted by the Orange show executive committee. It represents an outlay of $250,000 and is the finest exposition building on the coast. It is almost 1000 feet long from the front entrance to the rear wall, the exhibit halls occupying 760 feet of this space. It is large enough to house Uncle Sam's great dirigibles.

Plans are rapidly maturing for the forthcoming event which will mark the fifteenth anniversary of the Orange show. For fourteen years the show has been held under canvas and it is planned therefore to make the fifteenth citrus classic greater than ever before as a way of house warming the new building.

It is announced by General Manager R. H. Mack that every inch of space has been taken in feature displays being planned. All rack display for California's finest citrus fruit has been taken and there is but little space left in the industrial and automobile departments.

The Venetian motif will be carried out in the decorations. The Orange show has always been noted for its gorgeous decorations and the climax in beauty of expositions is expected to be reached for the 1925 show.

MISSION PLAY TO START FEBRUARY 1

The Mission Play will begin its fourteenth annual season at San Gabriel on Sunday afternoon, February 1, at 2:15 o'clock. John Steven McGroarty, author, will appear in person at the performance to deliver a short address to the audience.

R. D. MacLean, the veteran Shakespeare actor, will resume the leading role of Fray Junipero Serra. Miss Violet Schram will succeed Patia Power as Senora Josefa Yorba. Several new singers and Spanish dancers and a band of Hopi Indian dancers have been added to the cast.

The opening promises to be the most notable in the long history of the Mission Play. Many prominent people have already made reservations for seats, and indications are for a record breaking crowd.

Mitchell Store Employees Meet

The Employees' club of Chas. F. Mitchell's store and decorating shop, held their regular bi-monthly meeting at the Mitchell store last night with E. L. Zimmerman in charge of the meeting.

A short talk by George Mousley on "Efficiency" and a talk by Freeman H. Bloodgood, local real estate and insurance man featured the evening. After a general discussion led by Bloodgood, the club adjourned. J. O. Metz was appointed chairman of the next meeting.

Conte was scheduled to be tried in the superior court on a charge of perjury. It is alleged that he sore falsely to the age of a girl he married in this city a few months ago. Torchia is counsel for the defense, but has not yet recovered sufficiently from the bomb explosion to appear in court.

EAST PREPARING FOR SUN ECLIPSE

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Ninety trained observers of light and shadow will literally attempt to catch the shadow of the moon on the housetops of New York during the eclipse. The purpose is to determine the exact location of the border of shadow from which much scientific data is computed.

BELIEVE WEATHER MAY BE CLOUDY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Belief that cloudy weather would interfere with observations of the eclipse was expressed today by weather bureau officials. They said, however, no definite forecast could be made until Friday.

WILL TURN ON STREET LIGHTS

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 22.—Street lights will be in service here between 8 a. m. and 9:30 a. m. for the eclipse. Director of Public Safety Butler notified city light plants. Additional police protection for firms transporting payrolls between those hours will be furnished on request, the director announced.

PREDICTS STORM STOP VIEW

HAKENSACK, N. J., Jan. 22.—Andrew Jackson Devore, 80, known as the "sage of Hakensack", because of his ability to forecast weather, predicts a storm will interfere with observations of the eclipse.

Men! Don't Come Home Fagged Out by Hard Work

DOCTORS say that in an enormous number of cases when men come home physically and mentally "all in," nervous and cranky, the real cause is not hard work, but thin, pale, watery blood, deficient in strength-giving iron. Once this iron is restored to the blood it is often astonishing how quickly these men gain new strength, nerve force and endurance.

But be sure the iron you take is organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and not the old-fashioned liquid medicines and pills made by the action of powerful acids on ordinary mineral iron. Nuxated Iron is a natural organic iron, like the iron in your own blood, and like that in spinach and lentils. Does not injure teeth nor disturb the stomach. So remarkable are the effects of Nuxated Iron that thousands of weak, nervous, fagged-out men and women have often increased their strength, energy, and endurance in only two weeks' time. Try Nuxated Iron just two weeks. Money back if not delighted. But make certain you get genuine guaranteed Nuxated Iron tablets with the letters N-I on every tablet. At all good druggists.

CHAMBER MEN TO GATHER TONIGHT

Expressing the belief that there would be a large attendance at the Chamber of Commerce smoker at St. Ann's Inn tonight, A. L. Olinger, secretary, today announced that scheduled five-minute talks on the subject of "What We Need in Santa Ana," included W. C. Jerome, A. G. Flagg, John Harvey, L. R. Crawford, Bruce Switzer and Fred Forgy.

"The Senior and Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Santa Ana Board of Realtors and the service clubs of the city are cooperating in efforts to make the smoker a meeting of interest," the secretary said. "Interest that has been manifested by the organizations indicates that members will be present in large numbers. We are looking forward to a profitable evening in the discussion of community affairs.

"The session will be an open forum and anyone present will be given the courtesy of the floor for five minutes to discuss any subject that may be chosen."

Smokes and apples will be furnished by the committee in charge, Jesse Elliott, William Iverson, Dr. John Wehrly, Jr., Ogden Markel, Flake Smith, W. H. Spurgeon and A. L. Olinger.

Two ingredients of illuminating gas—propane and isobutane—can be used as a refrigerating liquid to take the place of liquid ammonia.

Brass may be obtained in colors ranging from bright yellow to orange and from red to blue due to a new chemical process.

You Can Quickly Limber Up Sore, Stiff, Swollen Joints

Even chronic rheumatic swellings in knee, foot, ankles, arch, hips, elbow, shoulder or finger joints yield to the mighty powerful influence of JOINT-EASE.

It's here, right in town and every five druggist has it.

It's a low price remedy, to be sure, but that doesn't stop it from taking the kinks, lameness or torture out of your troubled joints.

Joint-Ease is the name, so called because it is compounded solely for the purpose of relieving all joint ailments. Just rub it on the tormented, lame joints and in just a few seconds it will penetrate through skin and flesh straight down to the ligaments and tendons of the joints—right where the agony starts—Then blessed comfort comes quickly.

It absorbs instantly and is so clean that you can rub it on often and get thereby results much more quickly, when the joint is inflamed and the agony intense.

Being such a powerful counter-irritant, it cannot help bringing speedy and helpful results in congestion, sore throat, chest colds, lumbago and neuralgia much quicker than almost any remedy you can buy.

But you must remember that it is for joint afflictions that Joint-Ease is mostly dispensed, and its helpfulness will astonish you after all ordinary liniments and other treatments have failed. All druggists sell lots of it.—Adv.

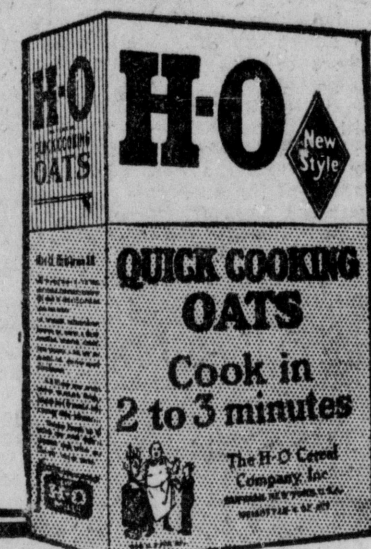

You've always wanted it—here it is—New Style H-O

THE only oats that cook into granular oatmeal. Nothing else like it. Meaty granules provide roughage and stimulate digestion. Never cook sticky or pasty.

The tiny, cup-shaped oat flakes have a wonderfully appetizing "baked-in" flavor. More than a new oatmeal—a new cereal—the tastiest breakfast dish ever.

Energy-building carbohydrates, tissue-building proteins, a wealth of vital minerals. And New Style H-O takes only 2 to 3 short minutes to cook—the quickest cooking cereal—quick as a flash!

Now in two kinds: Regular H-O Oats and New Style H-O Oats (Quick). Standard full size and weight pkg.—weight, 1 lb. 4 oz.

Easy Way to Break Severest Cough

No matter how long you have had a persistent, weakening cough—no matter how many remedies you have tried without success—you can usually get relief instantly, and often relieve the entire condition in 24 hours, by a very simple method. The method is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery and holds it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The quick relief seems almost magical, and the quickness with which the whole cough condition disappears is often simply amazing. There is nothing better for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, bronchial asthma, hoarseness, and almost every throat irritation. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. The Arnold Peeks Entertain For Mrs. Rhodes

Calling together a little group of their friends to compliment Mrs. Ellis Rhodes (June Hamilton Rhodes) who will leave soon for a trip around the world as business manager for the Denishawn Dancers, the Arnold Peeks entertained Tuesday evening at a delightful party following an informal dinner at which place of honor was accorded Mrs. Rhodes.

The dinner was a pleasant event at which covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Peek, Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Edwina Hamilton, Mr. Lench and the two lively youngsters of the Peek home. Later in the evening other members of a guest group assembled at the charming North Main street home and enjoyed an evening of friendly chat which reached its climax at a late hour when Mrs. Peek presiding at the coffee urn, a buffet supper was served.

The valentine motif was used in all decorations of the home and in the table appointments. Those asked to greet the honoree and extend their bon voyage wishes were Mr. and Mrs. Charles March of Redlands, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mayer, Mr. Eleanor Elliott, Miss Ruth Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin T. McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McBeary, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crozier Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Daley, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Nealey, Miss Mabel Woodruff, Miss Beatrice Cartwright, Miss Holly Lash and Robert Kenneth Crist.

Missionary Societv

In the devotional service in connection with the regular auxiliary meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church held yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Hutchins quoted the last words of New England's poet Henry W. Longfellow, as recalled by the singing of the missionary hymn, "The Morning Light Is Breaking." "Out of the shadows of night, the world rolls into light. It is daybreak everywhere." She took as her subject "The Morning Light, the Light of the World, and Light Bearers."

Mrs. Palmer announced that Bishop Bish, who has spent fifteen years in our work in France will give the thank-offering address on Sunday, February 1. An hour for special prayer for this service will be set apart Friday afternoon, January 30, at 2:30 in the church parlor. Mrs. Wieseman announced that Mrs. Mae Chisholm Brown has consented to conduct the missionary study class each week during the eight weeks when church night will be observed. The treasurer, Mrs. Kellogg mentioned three items of interest—an annuity of $1000 given, a new scholarship taken, and increase in subscription to the Messenger.

Mrs. Hayes, accompanied by Miss Carrie Seaton, sang a beautiful solo, entitled "Come Unto Me." Mrs. McCormac presented the study lesson from "Ming-Kwong, City of the Morning Light," written by Mary Ninde Gamewell. She told in a most interesting manner of outstanding missionary events in China from 1877 to 1900—the developments in educational work, training of nationals for leadership, and change in attitude of Chinese government toward things western.

A large delegation of members went to the First M. E. church in Los Angeles last week to the annual Pacific Branch quarterly meeting, among those who brought reports were Miss Jessie Millar, who told of the splendid work done by Bishop Burr in his years of service at Cranston Institute, Rome. Eleven missionaries have been sent to Italy. Mrs. D. P. Palmer gave echoes from the great General Executive held recently in Orange, N. J. 50 new missionaries were commissioned, seven being sent to China.

Mrs. Kellogg told about the missionaries at the branch meeting, twenty-five being on the platform at one time, representing three hundred and thirty-five years of service on the foreign field. Mrs. Horton Palmer spoke of the message that came to her through seeing the beautiful windows in the First M. E. church. Mrs. Schick the new superintendent of the Standard Bearers gave encouraging news of the work of these young people, being trained for missionary service.

Business Woman's Club

Members of the Business and Professional Women's club are planning a most interesting event for Monday, January 26, at their regular weekly luncheon at St. Ann's Inn at noon, for they will entertain their mothers as honorees. Those whose mothers are not here, will borrow one for the occasion it was said. In carrying out the plan, the program will add a characteristic touch for it too will be a "mother-daughter" event since Mrs. Victor Montgomery has consented to give one of her interesting talks on the history and landmarks of Orange county and her daughter, Miss Louise Montgomery, will give the musical program. Luncheon will be at the usual hour, 12 o'clock, and those who will have guests are requested to notify Miss Mabel McPadden, the president, that sufficient reservations may be made with the Inn manager, Mr. Thiele.

The honey crop of America, which is produced in about six weeks, is worth over $50,000,000. New Orleans is rated the second largest port in the United States.

Woman's Page

Brazil Offers Timely Topic to Members Of Woman's Club

Such a variety of matters held the interest of Santa Ana woman's club members at their Tuesday meeting with Mrs. J. H. Northrup at her attractive North Broadway home, for in addition to the interesting program and its glimpses of Brazil, were numerous business details to be considered.

Mrs. Northrup attracted the attention of her guests at once by the use of bowls of yellow nasturtiums in decorative effect. The recent cold weather had not affected her flowers evidently and she had quantities of the brilliant blossoms to use. There was an unusually large attendance of the members to enjoy their charm. Mrs. Lovisa Leslie presided in her usual friendly little way and the ceremonial opening in which both club ode and collect were observed, was employed. One of the first matters introduced was the question of Pullerton's offer of a site for the Southern Branch of the State university, which the club had been asked to endorse. Mrs. B. Tuttle, an expert speaker of the club, gave a most illuminating report following which the club went on record as supporting the offer of the site as recommended.

Mrs. Frances Stone was welcomed to membership in a very gracious little greeting by the president, Mrs. Leslie. An expression of appreciation was accorded by the club as a whole, to Miss Octavia Goldworthy for the beautiful New Year's poem which she dedicated to the club and its members.

The luncheon at St. Ann's Inn with which the members will celebrate the silver anniversary of the Santa Ana Woman's club, on Friday, January 29, was discussed in detail and events of the program outlined. The affair will be open to guests and it is hoped that each member will plan to ask friends to share the happy occasion. The luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock and arrangements have been made with the very accommodating manager of the Inn, Theodore Thiele, for a delicious menu, which a very nominal price will be asked. Reservations must be made in advance, however. Mrs. E. E. Knight of Yorba Linda, president of the County and District Federations of Women's clubs, will be among the honored guests as will Mrs. Terry E. Stephenson, president of Eboli society of Santa Ana valley.

Following the business discussions, Mrs. I. D. Annis and Mrs. Howard Clemens were presented as the program committee for the day with Brazil as the study subject. Mrs. Annis in a most interesting manner, dwelt upon the physical aspects of the country, its geological position and divisions and the many and varied productions—precious metals and minerals, cattle and of course, the coffee for which it is so widely known. Her paper was so carefully prepared and showed such insight into conditions in Brazil that it proved as valuable at it was interesting to the members.

Mrs. Clemens approached her subject from the standpoint of home life and education and pointed out that racial lines are not sharply drawn there where the Brazilian people is a product of mixed marriages and mixed races. The community life achieved by a family with all its branches was described as was the school system. She spoke of the lack of universities and the fact that Brazilian youths so frequently come to this country to complete their education.

Mrs. Clemens' paper completely rounded out the subject with its wealth of interesting material and the two together offered the club one of its most interesting afternoons. In the discussion which followed, Mrs. R. Ruth Tiffany told of hearing Bishop Kinsolver of the Episcopal church, describe the snake farms at Santa Paulo (the "Brazilian San Francisco") where snakes were propagated for their venom to be used in medicinal serums. Roll call was responded to with current events.

Doris Welles Auxiliary

Members and friends of the Doris Welles auxiliary of the First M. E. church, enjoyed a very appetizing 6 o'clock dinner at the home of Miss Gertrude Richardson on Monday evening.

The regular business session was conducted by the president, Miss May Beamer. Miss Hazel Trasher presented the third chapter of the study book, "Ming Kwong," in a pleasing and helpful way.

The hostess was assisted by Miss Esther Henriksen and Miss Davidson.

Hostess Compliments Recent Bride at Pretty Party

Honoring a December bride, Mrs. J. W. McCormac entertained delightfully Tuesday evening at her home, 112 Church street, with Mrs. Harvey Higbey (Hazel Harding) as the motif for the pleasant affair.

Decorations in pastel tints gave a lovely rainbow effect to the appointments and at the supper hour the same delicate tints were apparent in the arrangement of the table where the guests assembled to enjoy a delicious two-course supper.

Mrs. McCormac had planned a number of appropriate games for the evening's amusement and added to the entertaining features by reading the "Ten Commandments of a Bride". Assisting her in carrying out the entertainment plans were Mrs. Frances Weinrich and the Misses Pauline Smith and Gladys Heacock.

During the course of the evening the young people presented Mrs. Higbey with a beautiful gift which will occupy a prominent place in her new home and over speak of the Philathes class of the First M. E. church, whose members formed the evening's guest group. Mrs. Higbey has been a prominent member of the class and Mrs. McCormac is the well-loved teacher.

In addition to the honor guest and those assisting Mrs. McCormac, those present were Mrs. Lyla Northrup, Mrs. Gertrude Smith, and the Misses Nellie Irvine, Mayme Denison, Audria Fey, Esther Coffman, Grace Denison, Ruby Nanney, Ethel Coffman, Margaret Marsh, May Beamer and Lydia Fisher.

Local Eastern Stars Motor to Pasadena For Social Event

Motoring to Pasadena last night Mr. and Mrs. James T. Carter were among the honor guests at a pleasant reunion of all the members of Southland chapter, O. E. S. The event was in honor of the fourteenth birthday of the chapter, of which Mr. and Mrs. Carter are charter members.

Mrs. Warren Bagby, the first matron, presided over the chapter meeting assisted by practically all of her original staff of officers which included Mrs. Carter as marshal. Following the business routine, dancing and cards were introduced and at the refreshment hour the charter members and officers were seated at one large table beautifully decorated for the serving of the delectable supper.

Privileged to ask guests for the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Carter were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walters, Mr. and Mrs. William Dean and Mr. and Mrs. Wright, members of Santa Ana chapter of which Mrs. Walters is worthy matron and which has been served by Mr. and Mrs. Carter as patron and matron.

Afternoon Event Will Compliment Visitor From Honolulu

Among the pleasant social events scheduled for the near future, is the At Home which Mrs. Elmer Barr Burns and her daughter, Mrs. Frank Charles Arnim are presenting Thursday afternoon, January 29, at the beautiful Burns home, 916 Spurgeon street.

Mrs. Clifton Goodknight of Honolulu will be the incentive for the event and members of Santa Ana social circle are on the qui vive to meet this interesting visitor from the islands. Mrs. Goodknight is at present in Anaheim where she is the house-guest of the C. C. Chapman and Dr. William H. Wickert families and where she is being lavishly entertained.

In her island home, Mrs. Goodknight is a leader in club and social circles. She is prominent in P. E. O. and Daughters of the American Revolution as well as in the Woman's clubs of Honolulu. Her charm of personality coupled with an unusually brilliant mind, make her a delightful friend whom Mrs. Burns and Mrs. Arnim are happy to introduce to their Santa Ana friends.

Mrs. Goodknight's presence in Southern California just now is an interesting thing in itself, as she is here as chaparrone to a delightful young Honolulu girl, Miss Carolyn Lincoln Deas whose beauty won her an opening with the Warner Brothers studio of the Los Angeles film colony. Miss Deas will join her in Santa Ana later for a few days' visit in the Burns and Arnim homes.

Little Play Scores Marked Success

After having gained high praise from local luncheon clubs and organizations before which they have presented the play, "The Heart of the Estate," the little cast which produced the sketch under the direction of the local Insurance Underwriters' association, has been called to various near-by cities to repeat the offering.

Mrs. Jack Olivari plays the leading role of "Mrs. Morton" with Guy Gilbert as the attorney and Little Miss Arlene Crawford and J. D. Hodgson as the Morton children. Their work was delightful in the various roles and so interesting it was repeated before the Huntington Beach Lions club.

Today at the noon luncheon of the Orange Lions club it was given again and tomorrow the cast met at the Beach city again to appear before the Beach Rotarians. One of the San Diego luncheon clubs has written for an engagement next week, so the members of the cast feel that they are practically "on tour."

Pleasant Recognition Of Local Writer's Versifying

On the editorial page of today's Register in the section devoted to Worth-While verse, appears a poem by Mrs. Harwood Sharp, of 222 Orange avenue, whose recent appearance in the Overland Monthly and Out West Magazine gave her friends much pleasure.

In the same number of the magazine is a brief sketch of the author as follows:
"Gazelle Stevens Sharp is a member of the graduating class of 1879 of Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa. She says 'My father was a Congregational minister, my mother an ideal minister's wife. I inherited from her the desire to write which I used for a number of years for the most part in true stories for children. Later I tried poetry and enjoyed it very much.' Mrs. Sharp has published a volume of verse, 'A Little Patch of Blue.'"

Her verse-writing has given a great deal of pleasure to Mrs. Sharp's friends. She is a member of the Modern Poetry section of Eboli society and during the recent club year presented a number of her verses at a very interesting meeting of the Santa Ana Woman's club at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Nealey. She gave a very interesting and informal talk on her experience as a writer and used the poems in illustrating various points of the talk.

Telephone Company Inaugurates New Call System

LOCATION OF UNIVERSITY IN THIS COUNTY IS DISCUSSED

A. L. Oliger Declares Entire Section Will Benefit If School Is Secured

ADVANTAGES OF SITES ARE LISTED

Chamber Secretary Believes Regents Look With Favor on Fullerton Tract

By A. L. OLIGER
Secretary, Senior C. of C.

The new location of the southern branch of the University of California is a matter of vital interest to Santa Ana and Orange county and every influential citizen in the county might well give this matter serious consideration and assist in every possible way to secure this splendid university for Orange county.

One does not have to strain his imagination to fully realize what this school would mean to the future development of this community. With this institution located in the northern part of the county, with the harbor to the south, and with the fertile fields between, speckled with industrial plants, it can be easily realized that this section of Southern California would be the zenith of community development.

According to late reports the Orange county location which is being fostered by the Fullerton Chamber of Commerce, and which has the backing of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county, stands a mighty good chance of being selected by the board of regents. The Fullerton chamber is making a strong bid for this development and has prepared a splendid prospectus setting forth the many advantages of this site as an ideal location for the Southern Branch.

Some of the special features brought out for the Orange county site is the fact that sufficient acreage is available, not only for the present needs of the school but for the future development of the institution, which is destined to become one of the largest, if not the largest, of its kind, in the world.

The tract has plenty of high-grade water, both for domestic consumption and irrigation purposes, it is located close enough to Los Angeles to secure the advantages

Stanley Clem To Build $12,000 Home

Stanley Clem, civic leader and sales manager of the Santa Ana Lumber company, plans the erection of a Spanish type house of nine rooms at the northwest corner of Benton way and Heliotrope street, North Broadway Park. The residence will be one story in height and of stucco construction. The cost will be about $12,000.

Plans were drawn by Fay Spangler. Clem is now receiving figures. Construction work is scheduled to start in about 10 days.

The Clem home at 1614 North Becker street has been sold to Ashby Turner, realtor. Pending the building of their new home, the Clems will remain at the Becker street address.

OWN-YOUR-OWN HOME WEEK IS BEING PLANNED

The California own-your-home movement for 1925 received the endorsement of the national home builders and subdividers' division in annual conference at Dallas according to Clifton J. Platt, state chairman. A national own-your-home week is proposed and plans to that end are being worked out by Chairman Platt and Chairman Bert L. Clogston, of the home builders and subdividers' division of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. At Oakland, State Chairman Fred T. Wood of the home builders and subdividers' and Harry B. Allen, president of the San Francisco real estate board, are among the leaders who are co-operating with the state chairman and his committee, which now includes about fifty realtors in representative sections of the state.

National Secretary Herbert U. Nelson has pledged his co-operation to the own-your-home movement, and it is proposed to have a whole week set apart throughout the nation. Realty boards generally are to name own-your-home committees.

The first home owning conference in California is tentatively set by Chairman Platt for Saturday, March 14, at Pasadena and will consist of morning luncheon and afternoon session. It is predicted more than 200 delegates from southern realty boards will attend the conference. On Saturday, April 11, a northern own-your-home conference will be held at San Francisco or Oakland, according to the chairman.

MANUFACTURE OF PUMPS IS STARTED HERE

President of Big Steel Company Buys Interest In Ulmer Corporation

Actual manufacture of pumps was started yesterday by the Ulmer Machinery corporation in the Central Industrial district, it was stated today. It was also announced that Arthur C. Denman, president of the Southern California Steel corporation of Los Angeles has become actively interested in the firm with the purchase of a large block of stock.

The Ulmer company recently received an order for 10 pumps and it is on this order that the employees are working.

The company is broadening its activities and intends to make larger pumps in the Santa Ana factory than were turned out in its Porterville establishment. The new pumps will range in size from six to 20 inches. The largest size was formerly 14 inches.

Twenty men are employed at the Ulmer plant. This number will be increased as the business grows. The pattern shop has been in operation for a month.

Mr. Denman plans to devote a large portion of his time to the Ulmer firm, it is understood. The company of which he is head is declared to be one of the largest in the Southland.

EXPECT GLASS FIRM TO START WORK SHORTLY

The Standard American Glass company will be producing glass within three weeks, it was stated today by Robert E. Brown, industrial realtor, who was instrumental in the firm locating in the Central Industrial district. The 1200 tons of broken glass now in the giant furnace will be gradually increased to 1800 tons. Heat in the furnace is now 1400 degrees Fahrenheit. This will gradually be increased to 2800 degrees, according to Brown.

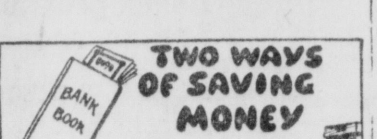

The furnace has been in operation two weeks. It usually takes 21 days for the glass to become thoroughly melted.

Campfire Permit Bill Is Opposed

Charles G. Dunwoody, director of the new conservation department of the California Development association, yesterday received a telegram from the Conservation Association of Southern California notifying him that the association has gone on record as opposing the Campfire Permit bill.

It is the belief of the southern body, as it also is that of the California Development association, that the enactment of this bill in the law would do more harm than good to the cause of forestry. The proposed measure is one of expediency and in the opinion of the southern body is a step backward in the protection of the forest resources of the state.

Novel Window Display At Goode Office

What is the first in the various stepping stones to success?

Stanley Goode, real estate broker, and his corps of salesmen, among them Harry Bladen, debated this question in developing a display for the show window of the Goode office at 309 North Sycamore street.

After a long debate, it was decided that "honesty" was the first stepping stone, and so a rock labeled honesty forms the first of a series of six stones representative as steps leading to success.

"Education" is given as the second and the others in the series are "industry," "systematic saving," "life insurance" and "home ownership."

"Each of these steps is essential to success," Goode said, "and the persons who practice them consistently in time is going to meet with that which every one covets, success."

L. B. MAN PLANS NEW BUILDING ON FOURTH ST.

A permit for a 50x35 foot brick business structure at 915 East Fourth street, was one of the many permits granted during the past week by Building Inspector W. S. Decker. The owner, W. W. Compton, prominent Long Beach builder, with an office at 143 East Ocean boulevard, will supervise the work. The cost is estimated at $7500. The dwelling now on the lot will serve as a second story to the new structure.

A frame and stucco store building will be erected at 619 Fairview avenue by Mrs. Clara M. Coleman of Newport Beach, who has awarded the contract to E. E. Bosworth. The cost is estimated at $2600.

A frame and stucco business structure to cost $1500 will be built at 207 Oak street by J. E. Hall of 505 Walnut avenue. Construction will be by day work.

A two story residence to require the expenditure of $5500 will be constructed at 2311 Riverside drive by Spencer Collins, local haberdasher. The building will be of frame, with a brick veneer. It will cover 30x40 feet. Bowman & Preble have the contract.

A residence and a garage totaling $4500 in price will be built at 820 Kilson Drive by R. O. Elliott of 1043 West Eighth street. The owner will direct the work.

Four thousand dollars will be expended by George Styling of 1113 Orange street in the erection of a dwelling and a garage at 1242 South Ross street. Construction will be by day work.

A. P. Hart of 512 South Main street has authorized Contractor Louis Brasch to erect a residence and a garage at 1005 Hickory street. The cost will be $3800.

W. Floyd Croddy, president of the Santa Ana Improvement company, has been issued a permit for the erection of a residence and a garage at 1320 West Washington street. The cost is estimated at $3000.

MATERIALS IN UPWARD CLIMB

With regard to the building material situation, S. W. Straus and company say:

"The new year started with upward tendencies in the general material situation. Material prices in December showed a trend toward higher levels, except on Portland cement. Several grades of lumber were quoted 10 per cent above November prices. Steel at the mill was a bit firmer in December, but warehouse prices remained practically unchanged. In New York City prices of starting material were somewhat higher. In other cities most starting materials remained at November levels."

EMISON PLANS TO CONSTRUCT $20,000 HOME

R. E. Emission, manager of the Santa Ana Lumber company, contemplates the erection this summer of a $20,000 residence on the corner of North Park boulevard and Riverside drive, in the North Broadway subdivision. It became known today with the announcement that he had purchased the lot at a consideration of $5800.

Asa Hoffman, local realtor, who was the agent in the transfer of the lot, today also disclosed that P. S. Rounds, of Santa Ana, had become the owner of a 10-acre walnut grove in the Tustin district, through an exchange with Fred Seibert of this city. The grove consideration was $30,000. Seibert accepting as part payment an 80-acre ranch in Twin Falls county, Idaho, valued at $20,000.

Seven Houses Are Under Construction On Ten Acre Subdivision

Seven residences are now under construction in the Junior High School tract and several more are scheduled to be under way shortly, it was stated today by Robert E. Brown, of Brown & Moore agents for the property. Owners of lots who have actually commenced work on dwellings or expect to soon are: V. E. Maynard, two houses; William McNeil, three houses; O. F. Powers, P. Anderson, Fred J. Hart, G. C. Fowler and H. L. Fowler.

Comprising 10 acres, the Junior High School tract is considered one of the best located and attractive properties in Santa Ana. Placed on the market a year ago, all improvements have been installed.

According to Brown, it is expected that the majority of the lot owners in the subdivision plan to erect dwellings.

J. Wiley Harris To Speak Before S.A. Realty Board

GARDEN GROVE TO SPEND BIG SUM ON SEWER

That the board of trustees of the Garden Grove sanitary district is preparing to expend approximately $80,000 in the construction of sewer lines and laterals for the district was disclosed here today by W. G. Knox, of the engineering firm of Knox & Loucks, in charge of the work.

According to Knox, the board has directed the advertising for bids to be submitted on the work, the offers to be opened Tuesday, February 3.

The district has been admitted to the joint outfall sewer program of the cities of Santa Ana, Orange, Anaheim and Fullerton, and the main line from the district to the joint outfall has been completed and accepted. The cost approximated $12,000.

It was pointed out by the engineer that when the contemplated installations are completed, the community of Garden Grove will be provided with ample facilities for sewerage the district, a convenience that many of the progressive residents of the community have sought for many years.

The sanitary board is composed of Dr. C. C. Violett, W. D. Merch, S. C. Oertly, J. M. Reafsnider and A. F. Mills.

CABLE COSTING $100,000 NOW AVAILABLE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Pacific Announces Direct Service Between Santa Ana and Los Angeles

LONG WAITS ARE THING OF PAST

Morrow Declares Service Places S. A. on Par With Cities Near L. A.

Completing the installation of a new cable between Santa Ana and Los Angeles at a cost of approximately $100,000, the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, through its local manager, E. S. Morrow, today announced inauguration here of a system for direct calls to Los Angeles.

The new arrangements will offer a service to subscribers at Santa Ana, Anaheim and Fullerton that will eliminate long waits for response to long distance calls to the southern metropolis. Calls will be handled the same as they are between the Santa Ana exchange and the exchanges at Orange, Tustin and Garden Grove.

The subscriber merely will have to take down his receiver, give the Los Angeles number wanted and hold the line until the party called responds. It will not be necessary to ask for Pacific Long distance, the manager said.

With this service in view, the telephone company has been working for some time in installing the cable. The cable was run from Los Angeles to Anaheim, and additional trunk lines were put in between Santa Ana and Anaheim, according to Morrow.

"Santa Ana subscribers now may have direct connection with Los Angeles, Pasadena and Glendale," Morrow said. "The number wanted at either of these points is given direct to the local operator, the call is passed immediately and connection established without the subscriber hanging up the receiver. In case the called station is busy, a report will be given and a subsequent attempt will be made to complete the call."

"This service is established for patrons who can get results by calling a number, but where a particular party is wanted, it will be necessary to call either Pacific or U. S. Long distance.

"The toll cable has been installed in line with the company's policy to furnish at all times a

Just for Comparison Mr. HOME BUILDER

What is the difference between Mitchell's work and ordinary house painting and finishing?

There is a difference. Colors are not harsh, the work is not smeary and it is finished. Woodwork is sanded, and things are left in an immaculate condition. Little things are not neglected, but Mitchell turns a completed job over to the customer, and the customer is satisfied. Another difference is in the workmen. Gentlemen, every one of them. Clean and tidy about their work, and of good moral character, always anxious to give satisfaction.

In the store you will find the same efficiency and service available, whether you are looking for paints, wall paper or varnishes.

GREAT POWER POTENTIALITIES IN IDAHO TOLD

There are enough power sites along the Snake river, in Idaho, to develop power for all requirements on the Pacific coast, including the electrification of the railroads and operation of all industries by electricity, according to John Curran, millionaire sheepman of Hagerman, Idaho, now staying at St. Ann's Inn.

The almost limitless potentialities of Idaho's waterways for developing power have attracted the attention of the federal government. Mr. Curran declared. A power survey made along the Snake river, between Lewiston, Ida., and Huntington, Ore., disclosed in that stretch of 187 miles 15 undeveloped power sites at which, with the present flow of 1,400,000 horse power can be developed.

One of the main projects considered, he said, includes a diversion dam on Salmon river, a tunnel to the Snake river and a dam 530 feet high in the Snake.

This survey, Mr. Curran added covers but a portion of the power site territory. Another stretch lying between American Falls and Hagerman, contains a number of valuable power sites, which if properly developed, would add another million and half horsepower to the proposed project.

Under nationwide super-power work that has been proposed and discussed by prominent engineers, the energy made available at these sites would be fed into a trunk line extending between Salt Lake and Spokane, which would radiate the power eastward to the Mississippi valley and westward to the Pacific coast.

Files Suit for Damaged Engine

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—The Southern Pacific railroad has filed suit for $6772 damages against Hugh Jamieson, B-ringing newspaperman, for damage to one of its locomotives.

Jamieson is alleged to have swerved his automobile on the track and an engine came along and hit it, defacing the engine.

15,000 Copies Of Special Bulletin Issued By State

The state real estate department has just issued 15,000 copies of a special bulletin, containing 116 pages, covering the principal addresses, papers and reports of the annual convention of the California Real Estate association held at Pasadena in October, 1924.

Every broker's office in the state will receive a copy, according to State Real Estate Commissioner Edwin T. Keiser. The volume was issued with the approval of the governor and the state board of control. It will be a decidedly valuable volume for real estate offices, and of especial value to new brokers and salesmen, it is thought.

PREDICTS 1925 WILL BE GREAT YEAR FOR STATE

"It is time for all good Californians to pull the crepe off their doors and tell the undertaker to go hang," C. L. Seagraves of Chicago, colonization agent of the Santa Fe system, told the California realtors at a luncheon recently. "Nothing is inherently wrong with California. I have the most abiding faith in the state."

Seagraves said that the year 1925 would be one of the best in the history of the state. California real estate, he declared, has a sound future, and is becoming more and more valuable as each new resident comes to this state to make his home.

According to the California Real Estate association's taxation survey, the addition of every new family of five people to this state adds $5000 assessed wealth to the state.

California has enjoyed a consistent growth in real estate development for the past 75 years, the survey revealed, and the seeds of today, basing their forecast on the record of the past, confidently visualize 25,000,000 and real estate worth $50,000,000,000 in California in the year 2000 A. D., just seventy-five years hence.

William May Garland predicts a population of 1,500,000 in Los Angeles in 1930; this is an increase of nearly 200 per cent over the last census.

WHITNEY HEADS STANFORD CLUB

Clyde C. Whitney, title man, Santa Ana, was yesterday elected president of the Stanford Men's club of Orange county. Vice presidents selected are Herbert L. Miller, Santa Ana, and Warren Bradford Placentia. The club's secretary, treasurer, elected yesterday, is George Baker, who was center on Stanford's great football team this year, now in business in Santa Ana.

The Stanford Men's club is to have an informal luncheon each Wednesday noon at Ketter's cafe. Stanford men from all over the county got the habit of lunching at the cafe each Wednesday noon with the result that the club was organized.

Steps are to be taken at once to organize a Stanford women's club. The plan is to have a meeting of the two clubs together once or twice or oftener a year.

Present at yesterday's meeting were C. C. Whitney, Herbert Miller, George Baker, Stanley E. Goode, Milford Harvey, Z. B. West Jr., Franklin West, G. K. Scovel, Lester J. Carden, Rex B. Kennedy, Charles Wollaston, David Carmichael, K. E. Van Slyck, Judson House, Daniel Thomas and T. E. Stephenson.

comprehensive and efficient telephone service.

"The telephone company calls it 'two number service,' and the name comes from the practice of giving the number desired and the number of the telephone from which the call is placed.

"The new service is the most rapid form of long distance service yet perfected, and it puts Santa Ana on a par with cities much closer to Los Angeles, in respect to quick communication, as well as to other things.

"Tustin, Garden Grove, Orange and Smelter can also be reached from Santa Ana by the new rapid form of service which is destined to tie the Southland more closely together and make miles seem even less consequential in this age of speed and invention. It is expected that Fullerton and Anaheim will also be connected to Santa Ana by the new service in the near future."

It is pointed out today that the United States long distance will continue its service here as usual, and that the new arrangement by the telephone company does not eliminate that service.

It was declared by interested parties that the U. S. is in position to give just as quick service as will be available under the new plan of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

COUPLE FROM L. B. PURCHASE HOTEL LEASE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Mayer, experience house and hotel managers, today announced that they had taken over the California hotel, on the northeast corner of North Main and Sixth streets, and were engaged in renovating the hotel through out.

The new owners recently disposed of apartment house interests at Long Beach and selected Santa Ana as their new home because of the general prosperity of this community, according to Mr. Mayer.

State Commerce Body Outlines 1925 Activities

Following a year of unprecedented achievements and steady expansion, the California Development association, the state chamber of commerce enters 1925 with a full program directed toward the healthful development, advancement and enrichment of California. Forty-five major and innumerable lesser activities have been mapped out for the season's work by the 13 functioning departments of the association.

These range from studies and surveys of various crops and industries to solving of agricultural and industrial problems, aid in development of water resources, revival of public interest in mining, combatting unfavorable publicity concerning California, co-operating in public movements for the welfare of the state, co-ordinating conservation interests and establishing a sound forestry policy for California. The high note in all association activities is that of state unity and co-operation.

ORANGE TO EXTEND LIGHTING SYSTEM

ORANGE, Jan. 22.—The West Chapman ornamental light project, calling for extension of Orange's principal "white way" from the Santa Fe railroad to the Main street city limits was officially approved by the city council when protests against the improvement were overruled. The council adopted a resolution calling for sealed bids on the system. The proposals will be opened on February 10, the date fixed for awarding the contract.

At the same time, the board took final action on the project to furnish ample lighting for the plaza square by adopting a similar resolution calling for bids on the work. The plaza lighting plan provides for installation of eight ornamental lights midway between each corner and street intersection. By this arrangement, the dark corners will be effectively illuminated, it was declared.

of that splendid metropolis, yet far enough away to prevent the "call of city life" from interfering with the educational facilities of the university. It is just a few miles from the ocean, in the shadow of a beautiful range of mountains, close to Orange county park, which can be used by the students for recreational purposes, adjacent to boulevards and transportation lines, and situated in the heart of a district that is ideal for school life in every particular.

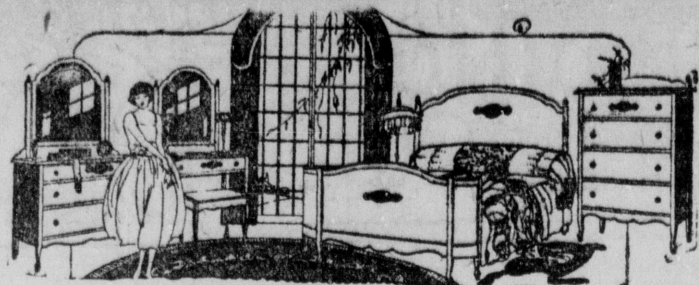

If the board of regents will view the new location of the southern branch strictly on a meritorious basis the site proposed by the representatives from Orange county will be found to contain more advantages and fewer disadvantages than any other site proposed.

BUILDERS' QUERIES ANSWERED

By Southern California Chapter, Associated General Contractors of America.

Q. Do you consider adobe houses practical?

A. Yes, they are not only practical, but very satisfactory if properly constructed. In the November issue of Homecraft, a Los Angeles magazine, a very good article on adobe was printed; would suggest you secure a copy for more complete details regarding adobe houses.

Q. Water running off the roof (flat gravel) of our new home left streaks of dirt. What was the cause and how can the streaks be removed?

A. It is possible that the fire wall has an outward slope which would cause water to run down the wall, and as dirt or dust had accumulated there it would be washed down, leaving a dirt streak. The only thing we know to remove the streaks would be to wash them off. As you have given so little information in your letter, we cannot answer your questions directly, but have given in a general way one of the possible causes.

Q. Is it necessary to put a sub-floor in a five-room house, over which the finished floor is laid?

A. If you are going to put in hardwood floors, it will be necessary to put in a sub-floor. If all the floors are of pine, standard floor thickness, it is not necessary. However, at times and under certain conditions, it is advisable.

Q. If I engage a contractor to build a six-room home for me, will he require any payment before the house has been completed?

A. That depends entirely upon the arrangements made with the contractor. It is the usual custom for payments to be made in five equal installments as the work progresses, as follows: First 20 per cent when the floor joists are in place and the rough lumber is on the job; the second 20 per cent when the roof is on; the third 20 per cent when the building is plastered; the fourth 20 per cent when the building is completed and the fifth 20 per cent after the time has elapsed for filing mechanic's liens, which is usually 35 days. While this is the usual practice, there is nothing to prevent you from making any arrangements you can with the contractor. Any contract you enter into with a builder should be carefully prepared both for your protection as well as his.

Q. We are having leaks in the valleys between the roof slopes, which from outward indications, the tin appears to be in good condition. Can you suggest a possible cause?

A. It is possible that the tin is not carried up on each side of the valley a sufficient distance to prevent water from running over it. The valleys between roof slopes should be covered with galvanized iron, the iron being carried up at least 12 inches on each side. It is well to paint both sides of the metal as an added precaution.

Q. Where may I secure a blank contract for building purposes?

A. You will find them at most of the stationery stores, where they may be purchased at a very small price.

Q. I have just sold a new home for $5600. The purchaser paid me $50 the first of each month, which includes interest on deferred principal at the rate of 7% per annum. Can you tell me how long it will take to pay out the place? How much interest will I receive?

A. While the above question is not one pertaining to the construction of a home, it is a long, tedious calculation for those not familiar with short methods of computations and therefore we will answer the question. It will take 150.52 months or 12 years, six months and 15 days to pay the place out at $50 per month including interest. You will receive $2525.89 in interest. The above figures are based on the fact that the payments will be met regularly for the stipulated amount.

Q. Does the California state housing law designate what size window shall be placed in a bath room?

A. The state housing act provides that in all dwelling houses the window area in the bath room shall not be less than three square feet.

Q. Is it advisable to purchase lumber frequently advertised at a greatly reduced price for the construction of a home?

A. We cannot advise you in this matter, as in many cases some very good lumber is offered for sale at an exceptionally low price. However, in any case it is not advisable to purchase second grade lumber for the erection of a home. It will be in the end more satisfactory and economical if you will purchase the very best materials of every kind.

Q. What will it cost me to have a concrete floor placed in a garage which is 16 by 18 feet in dimension?

A. The location of the garage with reference to accessibility to materials and the depth you desire the floor will govern what the job will cost. However, we are of the opinion that the cost will not exceed $60.

Q. Would you advise employing a carpenter to make the door and window frames for a small home or secure them ready made from the mill?

A. That is a question which can be best answered by the determination of two things. Which is the cheapest? Which is the best workmanship, considering the material used to be the same grade. After you have determined those questions we believe you will have the answer you desire. Usually frames made by a mill can be purchased for much less than it would take to buy the material and have a carpenter do the work.

CO-OPERATION IN BUILDING IS STRESSED

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22.—Co-operation on the part of those contemplating building or other construction projects is all that is necessary for the contractor to carry out the wishes of President Coolidge in the matter of stabilizing the construction industry and lengthening the building season to cover slack periods due to various reasons, declared William A. Simpson, president of the Southern California chapter, Associated General Contractors of America, upon his return this week from the national capital, where he attended the sixth annual convention of the Associated General Contractors of America last week.

Addressing 500 general contractors at the White House, last week, President Coolidge suggested two ways the contractors' association could extend their service to the public. One of the president's suggestions was that persons preparing to have construction done do so in slack times, which would have a tendency to decrease the unemployment throughout the country; and the other was that trade organizations avoid unjustifiable profits and limitation of competition.

While building operations are curtailed during the winter months in the north and east on account of the extreme cold, it has been stated by Secretary Hoover that it has been one more on account of custom than any other reason. It has been demonstrated in the past three or four years that construction can be carried on successfully during extreme cold weather. In Southern California climatic conditions are of little consequence in the construction industry, as is well known. Outside construction work can be carried on here more days per year than in any other locality in the United States, it is said.

ARE you planning to build a home? What steps have you taken to protect your investment—to be sure of getting exactly the kind of a home you plan?
Plan, in this instance, doesn't mean the architect's plan—it means the procedure you will follow in your dealings with contractors, sub-contractors, manufacturers, dealers and craftsmen.
How do you know that the next step you take will be in the right direction—that it will lead you to a satisfactory fulfillment of your plan? How do you know that it will not lead you into the hands of an unscrupulous contractor who "talks nice," but will fail to deliver?
HOW DO YOU KNOW? You don't know, unless you have first made up your mind to patronize ONLY members of the Builders Exchange. If you follow this course, you are INSURED of the highest possible percentage of satisfaction, fair dealing, honesty and quality of materials.
The Builders Exchange is not organized for profit. It has no selfish ends to gain. It is a cooperative organization and includes 80 leaders in the building industry in Orange County. DENY USE OF HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM TO STARBUCK AND MYERS FOR MEETING

Plans on the part of friends and sympathizers of William Starbuck and the Rev. Leon Myers, to secure the Santa Ana high school auditorium for a mass meeting, went awry yesterday afternoon when the board of education failed to take action on a petition asking for use of the school accommodations.

When the meeting was called to order by President Alexander Brownridge, there were but two other trustees present, Secretary F. L. Andrews and Dr. Roy S. Horton. Important business matters demanding his presence in Los Angeles prevented Trustee M. L. Keeler from being present, and illness explained the absence of Trustee Charles F. Smith.

Text of Petition
Secretary Andrews read the petition asking for use of the high school auditorium, which, carrying 83 signatures, reads as follows: "We, the undersigned, residents and taxpayers of Santa Ana, believe that citizens of this city and vicinity would like to hear at first hand the information that William Starbuck and Leon I. Myers claim to have relative to conditions in Orange County. We therefore petition your honorable body to grant permission to hold a public meeting in the high school auditorium Friday evening, January 23, or as soon thereafter as the place is available.

"We are advised that the state law provides for the use of public buildings for public gatherings when requested by responsible parties.

"We have signed this petition with the express understanding that the meeting shall be non-sectarian, non-political and that no personal animosities are to be indulged in."

The reading of this petition was followed by the reading of another petition, said to have been signed by about 30 well-known business men and property owners, to the effect that "The undersigned residents and taxpayers respectfully request that you do not permit the holding of a meeting in the school auditorium as requested by William Starbuck and others. We believe that public property should not be used for meetings of that character."

Reads Letter from Smith
Before any action was taken on the first petition, Secretary Andrews told the board members that Trustee Smith had sent a letter to the board, stating his stand in the premises, which he (Smith) desired to have read at the meeting and made a matter of record.

It read: "I have seen the petition for the use of the auditorium at the high school, and while it has different signatures, it is clearly for the same purposes, with the same speakers as the request which has already been refused by this board. We cannot afford to have the peace and harmony of our citizens torn to pieces, as has been done by these speakers in our neighboring cities.

"The whole subject has been ably and completely handled in the recent report of the county grand jury, which should be sufficient for everyone. I understand that this petition is also opposed by another petition, signed by a large number of representative citizens of our city.

"I have been confined to my home by illness for the past two weeks and am not yet physically able to attend your meeting. With the consent of the board, I would like to be recorded as strictly opposed to the granting of this petition for the use of the auditorium."

NAME DUNKIN PRESIDENT OF STUDENT BODY

Fighting it out for presidency of the Santa Ana junior college, Virgil Dunkin and Horace Perkins, candidates for the office, met in the battle of the ballots yesterday with the result that Dunkin was named for the executive leadership during the coming semester by the narrow margin of ten votes.

The count of ballots gave Dunkin 58 and Perkins 48, according to the report of the election board, Raymond Vanduff and Morris Borden.

Inauguration is to be held at next student body assembly, Wednesday, February 4. At that time the outgoing officers will turn over their mantle of authority to the new officers. Outgoing officers are: Abe Johnson, president; Virgil Dunkin, vice president; Lois Hallman, secretary; and Horace Perkins, treasurer.

In addition to the inaugural ceremonies at the assembly, Walter Dexter, president of Whittier college, is to speak before the students at the afternoon meeting. In the morning Dr. Dexter is to address the high school student body assembly.

Except for the presidency, the junior college elections just closed had no uncertainty about the other offices because the candidates were unopposed. The new vice president is John McCoy, secretary is Phyllis Oliver, and treasurer is Newton Pierce.

The so-called Independent party headed by Robert O'Brien, and Hugh Stetson claims to have made a clean sweep into office with the election of their complete ticket.

quest contained in the petition submitted by the supporters of Starbuck and Myers be granted. As there was no second to the motion, the chair declared it lost, and it was ordered filed for future reference.

Yesterday's attempt was the second effort on the part of Starbuck sympathizers to secure the high school auditorium for a mass meeting on the so-called law enforcement question.

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

YOST—Vaudeville and "East of Suez," with Pola Negri
WEST END—"So Big," with Colleen Moore.
WALKER—"Vanity's Price," with Anna Q. Nilsson.

"VANITY'S PRICE" CLOSES AT WALKER TONIGHT.

Woman has an infinitely greater capacity for suffering than man. Perhaps it is this heritage of her sex that permits her to take chances with Science and dare almost anything to recover that Youth by which she sets such store. In "Vanity's Price," the picture closing at Walker's theater tonight, a woman went to the limit to turn back the hand of time. And deals with just this situation.

It is a picture no woman can afford to miss. A big, powerful treatment of a theme that is so new as not to have lost its flavor; a theme of particular interest to women, whether they believe in "growing old gracefully" or in grasping every modern invention to halt the advancing years.

WALLACE BEERY IN CAST OF "SO BIG."

Wallace Beery, who plays one of the leading supporting roles in Colleen Moore's new picture, "So Big," now showing at the West End theater, got his start toward film fame by carrying water for the elephants in a circus.

He ran away with a circus when a boy, and although he was brought back home and given a sound spanking, his brief taste of the show world lasted.

When old enough to become a trainer of elephants for Ringling Brothers, his histrionic ability developed, and at the close of the second season he quit Ringling's and took up stock acting. His first engagement was with Eva Lang and O. D. Willard, Kansas City favorites.

In time Beery reached New York and played leading parts in H. W. Savage musical comedies. Among his successes here were "The Yankee Consul," "Prince of Pilsen" and "Babes in Toyland." Melodrama followed, and he starred in "Way Down East" and "Girl of the Golden West" and others.

Beery's first screen success was with Blanche Sweet in "The Unpardonable Sin."

FRIENDS IN S. A. MOURN SLAIN MAN

Numerous friends of Lamoyne A. Hazard, San Bernardino man, and deputy sheriff at Bishop, are mourning his tragic death, following word of his murder at the hands of a drunken Indian, at Bishop several days ago, of which full particulars have just been received in Santa Ana.

Hazard, with R. R. Parrett, supervisor of the Indian Service at Bishop, were shot down by an Indian, Charley Jackson, in a gun battle started when Parrett and Hazard attempted to arrest the whiskey-crazed man for disturbing the peace. After Hazard fell the Indian is alleged to have broken the stock of his rifle over the head of his prostrate victim, and a coroner's jury returned a verdict of death from the blows he received on the head, rather than from gun shot wounds.

Hazard was a special friend of the James Sleeper family of Santa Ana.

New Brokerage Concern Opens

Robert B. Combs and Edward L. Rust have opened an office in the Spurgeon building for the purpose of conducting a general brokerage business.

Under the firm name of Combs & Rust, they will buy and sell stocks and bonds, and also keep their clients posted on latest market quotations. The new concern has no connection with any other brokerage house and will serve its customers as brokers, rather than specialize in the promotion of stocks.

Combs is well known in Santa Ana, having been connected with brokerage houses here for the last three years. Rust has been identified with recognized firms in Los Angeles financial circles for several years.

Mac Smith Passes Up S. C. Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—Many of the leaders in the recent California open golf championship tournament have passed up the Southern California tourney to be played next month because "there's not enough money in it." MacDonald Smith, Al and Abe Espinoza, Larry Nabholz and Al Watrous announced today they will leave Sunday for Hot Springs, Ark., to compete in the Southwest open tournament.

Y. M. C. A. MAN IS SPEAKER AT HIGH SCHOOL

"Courage guided by a high purpose will bring out the good in the character of any man," declared Harry Holmes, national Y. M. C. A. secretary in Australia, who spoke before the Santa Ana high school student body here yesterday.

"Courage is what ought to be applied today in the school, the state and the nation," Holmes continued. "I have faith that all men, no matter how low they may be, have a spark of good in them that needs only the touch to set it off. By a friendly act or a considerate deed anyone of us may inspire the best in courage and effort in a fellow-man."

"Success is altogether a matter of courage," Holmes asserted. "With it you win, without it you fail." Citing examples of courage he had seen in the World War, Holmes told of the comrades who on his dying lips repeated the motto of his graduating class, "I do."

"He died still with the thought of adding glory to his school. The speaker said that the desire to live up to the 'tradition and glories of the school' would be appreciated in later life by the students. He described the Pacific ocean as the third Mediterranean sea, said that on its face, across which United States and Australia were bound by common ties of brotherhood, would transpire the next great world's trade and with it attract the world's attention. First it was the Mediterranean, then the Atlantic, and now the Pacific," Holmes declared.

PAAVO NURMI SETS TWO MORE RECORDS

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 22.—Paavo Nurmi, world's champion runner, made his tenth new world's record here last night when he ran away from two fellow Finns and established new marks for 2 1/4 miles and 2 3/4 miles.

His time for 2 1/4 miles was 10:42, which reduced the former record of 10:42.15 held by Hannes Kolehmainen. His record for 2 3/4 miles was 13:03, which cut 3.5 seconds off Kolehmainen's record.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act quickly on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do this without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath. The active tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

FILE 2 SUITS
IN DISPUTED ORANGE DEAL

The "house with two owners" at Orange came into the limelight of litigation again today, with the filing of two superior court actions
by George Long against George M.
Bay, Orange transfer man.

Long is the "one in fee simple"
of the property, which he purchased from the estate of Bay's deceased wife at an administrator's sale.
When Long purchased the property, however, he did not have a title search made, and was unaware, he claims, that Bay held a life estate interest in the property from his wife, or that such interest had been foreclosed to satisfy a judgment obtained by Mrs. Polly Roberts against Bay, who was said to have borrowed money from Mrs. Roberts.
Subsequently a dispute arose between Long and Mrs. Roberts over who was entitled to the property.
Long held title, but Mrs. Roberts held Bay's life estate interest. A court ruled that Mrs. Roberts is entitled to possession and ownership until Bay's death ended the life estate interest, allowing the property to revert to Long. Meanwhile the necessity of paying rent to Mrs. Roberts for his own property, or be ejected from the premises, which he had improved by erection of a new house, after purchasing it.

Long yesterday filed suit through Attorney A. E. Koesspel of Orange against Bay, asking $5,000 damages because, he alleged, Bay concealed the fact of the life estate interest and its foreclosure by Mrs. Roberts, at the time the property was sold to Long.
He charges that Bay violated his obligation as administrator of the estate.

In a second action, Long asked that title to the property be "quiet-ed" in his favor. Bay was named defendant in this suit, but Mrs.
Roberts and her claim upon the property was not mentioned.

JAN. L. A. MAN FOR VIOLATING TRAFFIC LAW

One man was sent to the Orange county jail to spend five days for speeding and other violators of traffic laws of the county and state paid fines aggregating $610 in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court yesterday, the weekly "speeders' day." Of this amount, $400 was paid by drivers caught speeding more than 25 miles an hour.
$180 was paid for "cutting in," and $30 for minor offenses.

D. G. Ellis, 28, 3475 East Fifth street, Los Angeles, was sentenced to jail for five days and began his term last night. He said he was out of work and the jail would suit him "splendidly" for the next five days.

Ellis was arrested on January 17
by Motorcycle Officer F. R. Stewart, near El Toro, charged with cutting in, speeding at 50 miles an hour and reckless driving.

The following persons, charged with speeding, were fined: B. B.

BAPTIST CONCLAVE IS STARTED TODAY

The Bible and missionary conference of the North Baptist convention at the First Baptist church here got underway this morning with a talk by Dr. W. F. Harper, executive secretary of the Southern California convention. The conference will come to a close tonight.

The party conducting the meeting here today, together with others, will go to San Diego for a conference there tomorrow. A tour of the east is planned after the San Diego meeting.

A dinner for all Baptists will be served at the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 6 o'clock. A round table discussion and introduction of missionaries is scheduled at the dinner. Dr. John Snape, pastor of the First Baptist church of Oakland, will preside. At 7:45 o'clock, Mrs.
E. H. Kinney, of the Americanization department of the Women's Home Mission society, will speak on "New Americans." Dr. Snape will speak at 8:45 o'clock on "Soul Tapping."

The Santa Ana Valley association, under whose auspices the conference is being held here, comprises some 15 Baptist churches.

WALL ST. JOURNAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Stocks broke into aggressive activity on the side of rising prices in today's session. The uprush was featured by another remarkable show of strength in U. S.
steel, with operations expanding at an unprecedented rate. Steel common was in countrywide demand, surging upward in a fashion without parallel since the war.

Shorts were thrown into rapid removed ahead. Their covering transactions coupled with a flood of buy-the general list a buoyant tone throughout the session.

CHURCHES TO COMPLETE IN MOVIES, PLAN

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan.
22.—Plans will be submitted to all church people of the United States within a short time for the church to enter the motion picture business on a competitive scale, John E. Edgerton, Lebanon, Tenn., manufacturer and president of the American Association of Manufacturers, said here today.

Nationally known churchmen believe that the church, to combat the dubious quality of motion pictures being filmed at present, must enter the business on a large scale and on a competitive basis.
Edgerton, president of the A. A. M., said.

"Moving pictures have become the greatest educational influence in the world," he said. "The time has come when the church must use it."

"There are 16,000 commercial movie houses in America and 25-30,000 persons pass through them every 24 hours."

"We have at our disposal approximately 10,000 Y. M. C. A. buildings and church auditoriums.
We propose to turn these into motion picture theaters and then proceed to produce suitable films."

FIND 'BRIDEGROOM' PUZZLED BY FUSS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22.—Livingston Rowe Jr., wealthy broker who disappeared on the eve of his wedding, was found today by Miss Cecyle A. Duncan, private investigator, who is today "resting" at the home of a friend out of the city.

Rowe denied that he had any intentions of marrying Miss Duncan and, in a telephone conversation with police, said that he "didn't know what it's all about."
"He doesn't understand it, eh?"
was Miss Duncan's comment.
"Well, I don't either, but believe me, I'm going to."

WILL PRESS PLANS FOR MESA LIGHTS

With the hearing on a petition to form a lighting district at Costa Mesa set for February 17 at 10
a. m. before the county board of superior, boosters for the project were today preparing to elicit official approval at that time. H.
A. Williamson, of Costa Mesa, is the leading sponsor of the movement.

If the supervisors approve the petition at the scheduled hearing, it is expected that a date for the election will be fixed at that time.

Another move for a lighting district at Country Club Gardens, just south of Santa Ana, was temporarily delayed this week when the petition filed with the supervisors was found to be short of the required 25 qualified signatures. After some of the signatures had been disqualified, it was found that only 23 remained. Backers of the movement are now at work remedying the matter and the petition is expected to be before the supervisors again next Tuesday.

street, opposite Birch park, for the temporary care of children of mothers who may want to do shopping, attend social functions or theater parties.

Both women will give their personal attention to children trusted to their care and will care for them by the hour or by the day.
Play equipment has been installed and the owners announce that everything possible will be done to make children happy and comfortable.

"Both of us have children nearly ready for college and hope to secure patronage that will give us returns sufficient to give our children college educations," said one of the women. "We will offer service which we believe will be appreciated by mothers."

L. A. PRODUCE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22.—Trading in produce was slow today, but fairly steady with few price changes.
Most fruits are steady. Peas are slightly weaker, with heavy receipts from Northern California. Sweet potatoes are weak with heavy supplies and prices lower.

BEACH PIONEER IS CALLED BY DEATH

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 22.—Mrs. Sarah M. Preston, 67, pioneer resident of Huntington Beach, died in her home yesterday.

Mrs. Preston came to Huntington Beach in 1904, and had since lived here. Not only was she a pioneer of this section of the country, but she crossed the plains with her husband, the late Lewis C. Preston, in a pioneer schooner, in 1878 and was a member of a band which took up homesteads near Pendleton, Ore. Nearly 30 years of her life was spent on the homestead there.

She is survived by six children, William S. Preston, George L. Preston and Guy H. Preston, of this city; Mrs. Estella A. Scott and Clyde E. Preston, of Pendleton, and Harold R. Preston, of Schenectady, N. Y.

Time for the funeral has not been set. Services will be held at the First Baptist church, with the Rev. Luther A. Arthur officiating. Interment will be in the cemetery here.

Westminster

WESTMINSTER, Jan. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Talley, formerly of Tennessee, have purchased the stock of the West End Hotel from L. B. Conrad. Mr. and Mrs. Talley have rented the Walter Hanline residence on Cherry street.

Mrs. E. F. Tharp and daughter, Viola, will remove this week to Westminster from Torrance.

A number of high school girls enjoyed a hike over the hills around Orange county park Saturday. Those who made the trip were Misses Evelyn Smith, Carrie Cosad, Mary Molica, Nellie and Marion Morris, Leola Sunderburg, and Mrs. George Sunderburg, who chaperoned the party.

Miss Amanda Knox, bride-elect, was honored Saturday night when a number of her friends in the Aloah Rebekah lodge gave a shower for her. They decided to buy a chest of silver instead of each one buying separate gifts. The installing staff, of which Miss Knox is a member, had practice at the hall on Saturday, and after this, the company was led to a chicken supper in the banquet hall, also in honor of Miss Knox's coming marriage.

Miss Knox was overwhelmed to find the box of silverware at her place. Mrs. Mae Marsperger and Mrs. George Whitcomb sponsored the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Warner and children motored Sunday to Pomona.

Mrs. Frank Lessig attended church in Santa Ana Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Anderson and family moved to Woodlake Saturday. A farewell party was given Miss Allene Anderson Friday evening by Miss Lola Murdy, in her home on Cherry street.

Guests were Miss Allene Anderson, Miss Lillian Arnett, Miss Helen McCoy, Mrs. W. B. McCoy, Miss Lily Knox, Miss Lily Price, Miss Althea Knox, Howard Bould, Donlin Murdy, Charles Baker, Eric and Walter McCoy, Hot chocolate, ice cream and cake were served after an evening of games.

Mrs. James W. Hays was hostess at a Sunday night supper served to Mr. and Mrs. C. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. J. Longstretch and son, Walter, all of Long Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Hays.

Guests at the C. C. Murdy home Sunday were Mrs. Joe Harkheimer of Los Angeles, and Mr. Murdy's sister, Mrs. F. J. Harris, of Santa Monica.

Mrs. Henry West entertained Mrs. Edith Wilsey and two children of Long Beach, and Earl Carter of Bellflower, at dinner Sunday.

Callers at the George Whitcomb home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Walton of Venice, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Walton of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Devero and family of Virginia City and Miss Mae Bucher.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Chamberlain were dinner guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Perry at San Pedro.

Chairmen of the different committees of the Happy Workers met Friday afternoon in the church to discuss plans for the year.

The Rev. R. A. Weld has announced that a baptismal service will be had in the Presbyterian church on February 1. The Rev. Mr. Hillis of Los Angeles, will assist in the service.

B. F. Bond of Long Beach has purchased a piece of land, 150 feet by 150 feet, at the southeast corner of Westminster avenue and the Huntington Beach boulevard, just across from the Baker Service station.

C. C. Murdy has finished work with the steam shovel at the California Gun club. Practically 125

Superintendent of Prisons Resigns

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Harbert Votaw, superintendent of federal prisons and brother-in-law of the late President Harding, has resigned, effective March 1, the department of justice announced today. Votaw is at present ill in a Washington hospital, recovering from a recent appendicitis operation. His physicians say he will be unable to work for six months.

Talbert

TALBERT, Jan. 22.—The contest which the Talbert Epworth league is holding is proving interesting. Six new members were added to the society in the first week. The Bible drill, which also gives points to the contesting sides, adds a lively 15 minutes to the evening service. A social to be held in February is being planned by the society.

Plans for a junior league have been discussed and these will be more fully materialized during the week. The first meeting of the junior league will be held at two o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harper and baby, and Mrs. Harper's mother, Mrs. James and daughter, Della May, of Santa Ana, Mrs. J. O. Harper, Miss Ruth Harper and son, Jack, motored to Orange county park Sunday, and spent the day in company with Mr. and Mrs. Lon Smith and family of Norwalk, and formerly of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Breeding and family were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cline and family.

Mrs. Wilfred and daughter, Velcie, who are the latest smallpox victims in Talbert, have been ill at their home this week. They had been under quarantine ever since the elder daughter, Vivian, contracted the disease. Vivian is entirely recovered, and Mrs. Wilfred and Velcie have only had varicoid, as they were vaccinated when Vivian was taken ill.

Fields Heaton, brother of Mrs. A. Martel, well known here, is confined at the Community hospital, Santa Ana, as the result of blood poisoning in one of his hands.

Miss Dorothy Rogers had as her guest Sunday Miss Iva Lee Wise of China, a former friend and schoolmate in Imperial valley, when both resided at Holtville.

The family of Clarence Breeding, which has been under quarantine for scarlet fever for some weeks, has been released. But one member of the family had the disease.

Miss Alpha Gilbert, who has been attending school in Pasadena, has given up her studies, for the present at least, because of a nervous breakdown. Miss Gilbert returned home the latter part of the week and was accompanied by some Pasadena friends. Complete rest for a month was ordered by the school nurse.

acres are now under water at this club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Thompson of Long Beach, Eric and Walter McCoy, Hot chocolate, ice cream and cake were served after an evening of games.

Mrs. James W. Hays was hostess at a Sunday night supper served to Mr. and Mrs. C. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. J. Longstretch and son, Walter, all of Long Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Hays.

Guests at the C. C. Murdy home Sunday were Mrs. Joe Harkheimer of Los Angeles, and Mr. Murdy's sister, Mrs. F. J. Harris, of Santa Monica.

A Boon to Mothers

Mothers everywhere who realize the danger to delicate little stomachs of too much dosing appreciate the value of Vicks in treating croup and children's colds.

With Vicks there is nothing to swallow—you just rub it on. The body heat releases the ingredients—Menthol, Camphor, Eucalyptus, Thymol, Turpentine—in the form of vapors which carry the medication directly to the nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs.

At the same time Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin like a poultice or plaster.

Colds go overnight, croup is generally relieved within 15 minutes.

EVENING SALUTATION

A Flower unblown; a Book unread
A Tree with fruit unharvested;
A Path untrod; a House whose rooms
Lack yet the heart's divine perfumes;
A Landscape whose wider border lies
In silent shade 'neath silent skies;
A wondrous Fountain yet unsealed;
A casket with its gifts concealed;
This is the year that for you waits
Beyond Tomorrow's mystic gates.

WE'VE HAD ENOUGH OF THEM

It is our opinion that the people of Orange County have had enough of these mass meetings at which the lid is taken off and thrown away.

It is our opinion that those who are responsible for the meetings that have been held have failed of their purposes, and that the meetings have done a great deal more harm than good.

It is our opinion that the gathering at Newport Beach, in which accusations were hurled about with great vigor, might very well be the last of its kind for some time to come.

So far as we can learn, no one is convinced of anything at these meetings. Practically everyone who goes to them has his mind made up to believe or disbelieve anything any particular speaker may make. He is either for the Klan or he has no use for it and can see no reason why it should be allowed to exist. He either believes that District Attorney Nelson is a faithful public servant or that he ought to be shot at sunrise. Nothing that is said changes the opinions of the individuals in the audience. Epithets never carry much weight. The hotter the epithet the less weight it carries.

Bitterness that breaks down co-operation and blinds individuals to their duty to themselves and to others is a dangerous poison.

Of course any man, or any group of men, has a right to hire a hall and hold a public meeting, if an audience can be secured; but equally of course city trustees, school boards or other public officials have a right to deny the use of public buildings for factional meetings of a highly controversial nature—especially after several such meetings have been held and resulted in nothing but harm to community welfare.

There are many people who have been and still are quite willing to concede sincerity of good intention on the part of a large percentage of those affiliated with the Ku Klux Klan. (The Register always has conceded and does now concede that.) But we believe that, almost to a man, they will agree with The Register that the "mass meetings" have not only proved to be a civic failure, but have become a public menace. We not only believe, but we know, that at least a considerable percentage of the Klansmen of Santa Ana have heartily disapproved of much that has been said and done at these "mass meetings" from the beginning, and now are ready to call a halt altogether. It remains to be seen whether the Klan is controlled locally by non-resident civic iconoclasts or by the better element which has thus far personally held the respect and confidence of this community, despite the largely prevailing disapproval of Klan principles and policies.

This we say, knowing that Klan leaders have declared that the Klan is not responsible for the mass meetings and not responsible for the things said at the meetings. Our opinion has been that the meetings have had Klan sympathy and in some ways Klan co-operation, but for the purposes of this editorial we are perfectly willing to waive that point aside. What we want to make clear is, that we believe Klan leaders can put a stop to the meetings, and we believe they will.

During a previous seasonal attack by the Newport Beach disturber, Mr. Pfau, upon Lew H. Wallace, The Register took occasion to declare emphatically its confidence in Lew H. Wallace. Following the mass meeting at Newport Beach Tuesday evening of this week at which Pfau, in a hall guarded by police, applied various epithets to Lew H. Wallace, we would indeed be recreant to our duty were we to fail to register our confidence in the high character of Lew H. Wallace and to pay tribute to the public services that he has rendered.

Lew Wallace's efforts have always been to build up, to make better, to develop. The man who has made it his business to blackguard Wallace, whether because of personal animus or because he is, as Attorney Clyde Bishop intimated at the Newport Beach meeting, under pay of interests inimical to Newport harbor, or for some other reason, has not bent his efforts toward building up—his efforts have been to tear down, to destroy, to injure.

It is our opinion that long after Mr. Pfau has moved on to pastures new, Lew H. Wallace will continue to be a resident of this county, as now, a good citizen, respected for his character and for his achievements.

AN AERO DYNAMO

From Germany, whence came the "rotor" ship that moves without the aid of sail or engine, now comes the windmill that generates electricity. The British Ministry of Agriculture is having the invention tested at Oxford by British experts. It has already been tested, it is said, at Wittenau, near Berlin.

This wind-power machine is called an "aero dynamo, 14-horsepower, transportable type." It is designed to supply a large farm with enough electricity for lighting, threshing and other usual power requirements.

The sails of this windmill are so constructed that they not only catch every faintest breath of air, but they also have automatic wind brakes which prevent the wings from revolving too rapidly when the wind is high. When there is any wind the accumulator is charged by the generator to tide over windless periods.

The idea is not new, but has never been successfully worked out. If the present device is economical and efficient, it should be a tremendous benefit to agriculture, particularly in regions where there is no cheap hydro-electric power.

WAR HEALTH LESSONS

"Men in the army during the World War," says an army physician, "suffered less disease, despite their hardships, than people of the same age at home, because of the periodical physical examinations which revealed incipient and unsuspected diseases in time to check them."

There should be no question about the fact of superior health in the army. Memories of the tragic influenza epidemic should give no one a false perspective. One of the strongest impressions made on open-minded observers, as the soldiers came home on furlough or at the time of final discharge, was their appearance of unbounding health and vigor.

They were healthy for other reasons besides the one mentioned above. In fact, they may be said to have been healthy not "despite their hardships" but because of their hardships. The comfort of home and office is far more enervating and conducive to disease than the arduous but wholesome life of the modern camp, military or civil. Living in the open, with plenty of exercise, regular hours and plain, wholesome food, of course the soldiers were healthy.

It is safe to say that most of them, before they had been home six months, suffered more sickness than they had in a year or two of army life, because of careless living and eating and lack of systematic exercise and fresh air.

The remedy for this decadence, of course, is not a return to the military camp but the application at home of the hygienic lessons learned during the war.

The road-builders' convention says we'll have perfect roads in 25 years. Also, no doubt, trucks perfectly able to smash them.

Economic Revolution

—Arthur Sears Henning.

The character of the stock-market boom that has developed since the Presidential election is regarded by economic authorities as the most extraordinary financial phenomenon in our history.

The fact that there was no profit taking during the first two months of the boom on a scale sufficient to produce a general setback is accepted as an indication that the bulk of the public buying has been for investment rather than speculative.

Never before has there appeared to be so enormous a volume of savings seeking investment. Specially significant are the indications that the investments are growing by leaps and bounds. The workers are buying corporation stocks with savings increased by the higher wages prevailing during and since the war, and according to some commentators, still further increased by the radical reduction of the expenditures on drink by the workmen under the prohibition regime.

Wage earners are now receiving a rapidly increasing percentage of the total volume of dividends paid out annually, while the percentage of dividends received by the rich is decreasing. Herein is noted a trend of corporation ownership from the rich few to the many of meager means, a trend denoting an economic revolution, thinks Prof. T. N. Carver, head of the economics department of Harvard university.

"The only economic revolution anywhere in the world that amounts to a hill of beans," he says, "is taking place in this country right now."

Members of the Federal Reserve board are inclined to believe that the United States may now be entering upon an era of investment by persons of small means that will bring about very striking shifts in the ownership of the great corporations during the next few years.

Protecting the Trees

—Stockton Independent.

Fresno's City Commission is going to do its full share in saving Fresno's trees and if private individuals do not co-operate willingly and cheerfully in the plan, the commission will take matters in its own hands.

In the future residents who remove trees from their premises will be required to sign a contract that unless the trees are replaced by the owners of the property the city will replace them, charging the costs to the property owners.

The contract form has been drawn up by the city attorney and is already in effect and tree-cutting requests are granted subject to the signing of the contract to replant or pay for the trees replaced by the city.

At no distant time it will no doubt be as much of a city's responsibility to safeguard the welfare of its trees as to provide specifications for sidewalks and curbing the streets that they shade. America is only beginning to awaken to a realization of the necessity of saving and conserving the life of its trees as long as possible through care and attention and at once replacing them when it is found necessary to cut or remove them.

Future generations are going to look back with horror and reproach upon the cruel and wanton waste of trees in this country both in the forest and in the cities that has been ruthlessly carried on since this country became settled.

That Body of Yours

—By James W. Barton, M. D.

THE HUSKY VOICE

You have sometimes received a great deal of sympathy from parents, family, or friends, because during an attack of a common cold your voice was about completely lost. They naturally felt that an ailment that could cause such complete loss of the voice, must be severe indeed.

What has happened? Well, something can irritate the lining of the nose or throat, and it is not very hard for it to extend to the little cords—vocal cords—stretched across the throat, like the tiny strips of rubber on the musical toy harmonica. These little cords have the same kind of covering as the rest of the throat, and get inflamed in just the same manner as any other part. This means that the membrane becomes swollen, and thus a little thicker, so that the cords lose some of their shape. Thus they will not vibrate as rapidly, and so your voice is lower in tone. They may become so inflamed that you cannot speak at all.

Now dust, cold, talking or singing too much, can set up the trouble. It becomes difficult and even painful to swallow, and talking becomes likewise difficult and painful. There is usually a tendency to cough, which gives the feeling of almost a tearing of the tissues. What about this laryngitis, as it is called? As a matter of fact, you are very often over your "cold" when the hoarseness or huskiness comes on, as it has taken the ailment a little time to travel down to the part where the vocal cords are situated. You are not usually "sick" at this time, but the loss of the voice and difficulty in swallowing, are annoying.

And what to do? The biggest part of the treatment is to try and rest the vocal cords. If you could rest the "singing" language with the fingers, or write everything on a pad, for twenty-four to forty-eight hours, it would likely effect a complete cure. However a great help to ease the soreness and uncomfortable feeling is the using of Tincture of Benzoin Co. A teaspoonful is placed at the bottom of a pitcher or other vessel, and two or three quarts of boiling water poured quickly upon it. A heavy towel is placed over the head and pitcher, and you inhale the steam from the mouth of the pitcher.

Using your voice at too high a pitch for a prolonged period is a frequent cause. A poorly ventilated room should always be avoided, if you are subject to these attacks of laryngitis.

Mothers Love

—Pasadena Star-News.

That was a sweetly pathetic news item which came from San Francisco. Little Wilma Johnson, 4 years old, run down by an automobile, lay crushed under the car. "Pick up my dollie, please, she's hurt!" the child pleaded. She forgot her own hurts in concern over the broken doll. She suffered and died with more thought for the doll than for herself.

There spoke "the eternal mother." That little one, had she grown up and had children of her own, would have been a wonderful mother, no doubt. She would have sacrificed everything for her children. She would have suffered that they might be spared. She would have forgotten herself in concern for her offspring.

This wonderful mother-love! There is nothing more sublime under Heaven. It has no limit. It has no measure. It stops at no sacrifice. It braves perils. It faces shame and disgrace, if need be. It endures grinding poverty. It suffers anguish. And it glories in the happiness and the success of the offspring upon whom it is bestowed so lavishly.

There is no sweeter, purer, deeper love this side of the eternal world than mother love. God gave to the world His Son—and He also gave mothers—the two gifts which transcend all other gifts.

Worth While Verse

YOUR ROOM

So often when it seems too hard for me,
Alone, to live as you would want me to,
I slip away from all the rest and come
In here, to your dear room and thoughts of you.

I love to be here in this quiet place
With all the tender memories it brings.
You do not seem so very far away
When I am here, alone, among your things.

Now I can sympathize with simple folk
Who need their idols to make God seem near.
You help me understand so many things.
I love this room; it seems so, like you, dear.

Pop was smoking and thinking and Ma was darning holes out of socks, saying, Do you remember Harrol Jennings, Willyum?

That pruno, pop sed, and Ma sed, He was not a pruno, I think he was a peetch.

I properly got my froot mixed up, pop sed, and Ma sed, Enyway I met him downtown today and he's in the sock bizness, he sells socks, holessies.

Childrens socks, I suppose, that sounds like him, pop sed, and Ma sed, No, mens socks, but it seems his company specializes on just one certain kind because they can manufacture them cheaper, they don't make anything but red socks and Harrol Jennings sells them holessies.

Yes gods, wat a life, pop sed. I could of had all I wanted for a dollar and 80 cents a duizen pairs, enuff to last you for years for just a few dollars, did you ever heer of anything so cheap? Ma sed.

But who in the name of sents wants to wear red socks? pop sed, and Ma sed, Yes, that's the drawback.

To say the least, pop sed. That's why I only ordered a duzen, Ma sed, and pop sed, Wats that, wats this, you ordered a duzen red socks and expect me to wear them.

Think how cheap they were, Ma sed, and pop sed, They'd of bin choen at any price, and Ma sed, Well maybe you'll wear them eround the house, you wouldnt waist them, would you?

I'll say I would, dont sit up for me, pop sed.

Wy, were are you going? Ma sed, and pop sed, Im going out to find 14 pairs of red white and blue shoes for you at 8 cents pair and it may take some time.

And he put on his hat and overcoat and went out, porberly going eround to the bowling alley.

The Deepest Hole

"Fifty miles off the coast of Japan what is said to be the deepest spot yet located in the ocean was recorded from a Japanese man of war with a sounding of 32,644 feet, or nearly six and a quarter miles. How much deeper the sea bed lies at this point is not known, for the wire was not long enough to reach farther. The greatest depth previously recorded is off the coast of Mindanao in the Philippine Islands, where bottom was reached at 32,113 feet. This is known as the Philippine Deep. The deepest "hole" in the Atlantic, 27,965 feet, is north of Porto Rico.—Popular Mechanics.

Echoing Back

Hal Cockran's
DAILY
POEM

SOMETIMES old yesterday has its appeal. Sometimes we like to look back. Often the niceness of old things seems real 'cause today they are things that we lack.

Can't you remember when you were a child. In Happiness Valley you'd lurk. Just like all youngsters you simply ran wild. Today you are lost in your work.

Innocence loaned you the time of your life. You knew not the meaning of worry. Now you are battling with everyday strife and always you seem in a hurry.

Where does it get you, this terrible race? You're running yourself out of trim. Why not just travel a sensible pace but still work with vigor and vim?

Yes, sir, old yesterday has its appeal. Why not look back, while you're stewing, drink in the lesson of youth, for it's real. Take your time, but do well, what you're doing.

Your Income Tax

A series of thirty articles, based on changes in tax legislation in the Revenue Act of 1924, has been prepared by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. These articles are appearing under the above heading, in the order they are issued.

No. 8

It should be noted that the revenue act of 1924 provides specifically that the status of a taxpayer relative to the amount of his personal exemptions shall be determined by apportionment in accordance with the number of months the taxpayer was single, married, or the head of a family.

Under the preceding act the amount of the exemption to which a taxpayer was entitled was determined by his status as a single person, married person or the head of a family on the last day of the taxable year.

A taxpayer, who was married on June 30, 1924, is entitled to an exemption of $1750. For the first six months of the taxable year he is classed as a single person, entitled to an exemption of $500—one-half of the $1000 exemption allowed a single person who is single for the complete taxable year—and for the last six months he is classed as a married person, entitled to an exemption of $1250, one-half of the exemption allowed a married person living with his wife or husband for the full taxable year. If on June 30 he became a widower, he is classed as a married person for the first half of the year and as a single person for the latter half.

In such computations a fractional part of a month is disregarded, unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it is considered a full month. These figures are based on the assumption that the return is made on the calendar year basis, as most are.

If on June 30, 1924, a taxpayer ceased being the head of a family—the support in one household of a relative or relatives being discontinued—he is granted the same exemption as in the case of a taxpayer married on June 30, a total of $1750. With regard to the $400 credit for a dependent, however, it is provided that the taxpayer's status on the last day of the taxable year (December 31, if the return is made on the calendar year basis) shall determine his right to such credit. If on that day he was the chief support of a dependent who is under 18 years of age, or in incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective, he is entitled to the $400 credit. If during the year his support of such dependent ceased, the credit is not allowed.

No. 9

The revenue act of 1924 provides for certain specified deductions from gross income in determining net income, among which are business expenses, interest on indebtedness, taxes, losses, bad debts, depreciation, depletion and contributions and gifts. Each will be treated separately.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

—by Olive Roberts Barton

NO. 10—THE FAIRY QUEEN'S ADVICE

"Let us go and see how the little country boy is getting along in the city at his Uncle Charley's house," said the Fairy Queen to the Twins.

"All right," said they. So all three got on two Spot's back and flew off happily to town.

They met Chuck standing on the pavement in front of his uncle's house.

"Oh shucks!" he was saying to himself as he stopped and looked up and down the street. "There isn't any place to sled ride here in town. The minute the snow falls it's shoveled right off the streets. And even if it wasn't you couldn't go sledding anyway for the autos."

"I think I'll go over to the park and make a snow-man. There is lots of snow where they aren't any paths."

So he started. Two Spot and his passengers following close behind. Chuck left the path and waded into a white drift of snow.

"Here—this is a fine place for a snow-man!" he cried. "And the snow's just right. It sticks fine."

He had made Mr. Snow Man with his knees when a voice cried sharply. "Hi! there! Stop that!"

"Don't you see the sign 'Keep off the Grass.' Well that means 'Keep off the Snow, too. Get along now or I'll run you in.'"

Poor Chuck got away as fast as he could. The policeman stood watching until he was out of sight. "Come on," said the Fairy Queen. "We'll hurry after him and see what happens next."

As he came near the house his aunt called out, "I was just looking for you. It's time for your violin lesson. Your teacher will be waiting."

"Oh, shucks!" said Chuck. (Really his name should have been Shucks.) "Everything is such a bother! All work and no fun like there is in the country! I hate violin lessons, and no place to sled-ride, or make a snow-man."

"Why, Chuck?" said his aunt. "You surprise me! You're mother wrote and said you said the same thing about the country. That it was all work and no play and that you hated to chop wood and clean paths."

Chuck hung his head. "I guess that's so," he said.

That night Chuck thought he was having a dream, but it was really and truly true—the thing that happened.

A big blue-velvet butterfly flew right in through the open window and perched on the foot of his bed. On its back was a beautiful little girl with a diamond on her forehead that shed light over the whole room. She stood poised at the foot of the bed for a minute and then gracefully stepped over the counterpane.

"I came to give you some good advice, Chuck," said she. "It's about life. I want you to learn a lesson. Without learning this you will always be unhappy. No one has a right to play until his work is done cheerfully and well. Life without work would be like living on dessert for meals. You would soon tire of playing all the time—just as you would tire of having nothing but sugar for food."

Go back to the country and never forget what I have told you."

"Chuck is going to be a fine boy, just as soon as he stops whining," the Fairy Queen later told the Twins.
